Wage-Price Plan Nears Completion

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon is nearing a final decision on the shape of Phase 3 wage-price controls amid indications the new economic rules may be imposed before April 30, when the old ones expire.

In fact, some officials hinted that the President may decide to put Phase 3 into effect within a few weeks, around the time that a new budget and his new economic message go to Congress.

The White House said Nixon, after receiving recommendations from his economic advisers Tuesday morning, "very possibly" will make a final decision on the new wage-price-control system this week.

Presidential Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler ruled out any controls at the farm-produce level, but otherwise gave no details on how the new system would look.

In past weeks, administration economic policy-makers have hinted that rent controls might be dropped in Phase 3 because they are too burdensome, that the profit-margin restraint would be lightened on businesses, and that coverage of the program might be limited to the nation's largest businesses and labor unions.

But officials, after learning of Nixon's intentions to make an announcement on the new program soon, said the President may go in a different direction.

While Phase 3 controls probably will be no tighter as far as food prices are concerned, the administration is expected to launch a vigorous effort to step up food supplies, thus putting downward pressure on prices. Food prices are controlled now at the wholesale and retail level.

The administration has pledged that it will make a special effort to cut food prices this year. The enormity of the problem was demonstrated again Tuesday with the release of December's Wholesale Price Index.

The bureau of Labor Statistics reported that wholesale prices went up by a sharp 1.8 per cent last month, the biggest increase since January of 1951. Food prices were responsible for most of that increase.

As for the economic-stabilization law, the administration is reported leaning to a one-year extension, with no major changes in the law. It has reasoned that the control program must be thought of as temporary, and that a permanent system would make labor and business react differently to wages and prices and force up inflationary pressures.

Ohio became the 38th and deciding state to approve the amendment, which gave 18-year-olds the vote.

Aronoff, in the last session, wanted to give 18-year-olds all rights of majority, but was thwarted because many legislators balked over drinking privileges being included.

"I think this is a good proposal, and I don't think the drinking aspect is that important," Aronoff said. He deleted it before trying again.

A Republican attempt to embarrass the new Democratic majority in the House was thwarted when the lower chamber adopted new rules, promising open committee meetings unless the membership unanimously agreed on closing them.

Rep. Norman Murdock, R-21 Cincinnati, wanted it written in the new rules that all meetings would be open to the press and public.

Democrats quickly countered that Republicans had kept the Rules committee closed until the last year. They said there was no need to put in writing something Republicans had never followed.

"I assure you there will be no secret meeting of the Rules Committee as long as I'm on it," said Majority Leader Barney Quilter, D-47 Toledo. "I know the speaker feels the same way."

A bipartisan resolution was adopted in the House requesting the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the federal Office of Management and Budget to immediately release emergency funds for relief of Ohio farmers, hampered by damp weather from getting their crops in.

Bills were offered in both the Senate and House to permit couples to file their state income tax by either joint or individual returns.

Cold Wave Worsens Nation's Weather Woes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Millions shivered today as an intense outbreak of arctic cold settled over much of the nation, sending temperatures below freezing deep into the South.

Sub zero cold enveloped the entire region from the Rockies to the Great Lakes.

Natural gas shortages in Louisiana and Mississippi caused cutbacks to industrial users, and inadequate pipeline facilities caused similar problems to Texas industry. Top priority throughout the Southeast went to homes and hospitals. Many schools were ordered closed.

About 148,000 Atlanta area residents spent a third straight night without heat or lights following Sunday's ice storm, and officials said many face two more days of similar discomfort.

Oklahoma's governor called a special meeting of rescue agencies to prepare for an onslaught of snow and bitter cold barreling across that state.

Many Oklahomans were snowbound and livestock was stranded or killed by weather conditions in the past few days.

In the West, snow fell from the mountains of California through the Plateau region and from the central and southern Rockies to the central and southern Plains. Kansas was under a heavy-snow watch.

Gale warnings were posted for the Pacific Northwest coast and travel advisories were issued for the Sierra Nevada mountains, Utah, Colorado and central mountains of Arizona. Heavy-snow warnings were posted for the northern and central mountains of New Mexico.

Snow flurries persisted across the Great Lakes and freezing temperatures touched every area except the California coast, southern Arizona, the western Gulf coast and southern Florida.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 33 at Bozeman, Mont., to 69 at Key West, Fla.

Outlays From Tax-Sharing Funds Listed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John Gilligan's proposals for spending $92.3 million of Ohio's 1972-1973 share of federal revenue sharing funds includes a $34.3 million allocation for vocational education.

It also calls for $18.5 million for various recreational improvements by the Natural Resources Department, and $3.8 million for a new program to subsidize bus fares of elderly and handicapped citizens who rely on mass transit for transportation.

Following is a summary of what the administration bill provides:

Department of Education — $34.3 million for construction and equipping of buildings for vocational education in areas of greatest need to be determined by the department.

Natural Resources — $18.5 million to acquire land, develop existing parks and trails, and increase access to Lake Erie beaches and state fishing facilities. Park land would be acquired at Punderson State Park ($300,000), Alum Creek ($400,000), Caesar Creek ($400,000), Buck Creek ($400,000), Stonelick ($300,000), Portage Lakes ($200,000), and Beaver Creek ($400,000).

For Lake Erie beach development, the governor proposed spending $3.7 million on projects to include Toledo, $300,000; Sandusky, $600,000; Lorain-Elyria, $800,000, and Cleveland, $2 million.

Other park allocations would include: Kelley's Island, $1.2 million; Cuyahoga Valley Park, $4 million; Great Seal State Park at Mount Logan near Chillicothe, $450,000; and state trails, $500,000, including a proposed 110-mile north-central bikeway from Mount Gilead to McConnellsville which would have top priority.

Additional development and acquisition of fishing facilities would include Stillwater River, $100,000; Lake St. Marys, $100,000; Indian Lake, $100,000; Maumee River, $200,000; and Tuscarawas River, $200,000.

Among other projects envisioned by the bill are roadside camping areas near interstate highway rest stops and scenic river development.

Department of Public Works — $1.5 million each for the fire and police training academies and $756,000 as the state's share of armory costs for Youngstown-Warren and Alliance. An allocation of $500,000 would be set aside for expansion of the central crime laboratory of the Bureau of Criminal Investigation and Identification at London.

Ohio Board of Regents — $2 million for equipment for two-year technical and community colleges and university branches.

Ohio Educational Television Network Commission — $1.2 million for network expansion to include new facilities at Ashtabula, Celina, Bryan, Mansfield, Sandusky, and in northern Shelby County.

Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections — $4 million to purchase and equip small minimum security institutions of a few hundred beds apiece to phase out the Ohio State Reformatory at Mansfield "over a number of years."

Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation — $7 million for construction of educational facilities for the mentally and physically handicapped.

Environmental Protection Agency — $2.5 million to develop a program of grants to local communities to insure safe water supplies throughout the state.

Ohio Expositions Commission — $4 million for improvements to the state fairgrounds, including renovation and maintenance of existing structures.

Department of Highway Safety — $669,669 to improve operations of State Highway Patrol Posts at Canfield, London, and Wooster.

Department of Transportation — $5 million, including $3.8 million to subsidize bus fares for the elderly and handicapped under rules to be established by the department, with $700,000 set aside for airport security and safety, and $500,000 for non-highway transportation planning.

Water and Sewer Rotary Commission — $5 million to assist counties in financing water and sewer projects.

State Controlling Board — $2.7 million to finance law enforcement improvements. Of the amount, $500,000 could be used to train police and courts with regard to Ohio's new criminal code.

Ohio Historical Society — $195,000 for improvements to the Great Lakes Historical Program, including a naval memorial in the Cleveland Harbor, and $115,000 for an Ohio River museum project.

Ohio Assembly Starts Work

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 110th General Assembly will begin hearings on bills next week as House Speaker A. G. Lancione gears up to get first-year business out of the way by July 1.

Both houses are to reconvene Wednesday afternoon to conclude their second week. They go back to work next Tuesday.

A Senate bill introduced Tuesday would lower the legal age of majority from 21 to 18 except for the purchase of alcoholic beverages.

It was sponsored by Sen. Stanley Aronoff, R-8 Cincinnati, who sponsored the U.S. constitutional amendment ratification resolution lowering the voting age.

Peace Talks Continue In Secret

PARIS (AP) — Henry A. Kissinger and Le Duc Tho met today in the third meeting of their new secret peace session in suburban Gif sur Yvette. Tho was host in the villa owned by the French Communist party.

For the third time in succession, the two delegations avoided any face-to-face encounter in public view. The sessions opened Monday in an atmosphere of apparent icy confrontation.

Kissinger and Tho maintained a news blackout on their talks. They conferred for a total of 10½ hours Monday and Tuesday. Although the atmosphere appeared to relax somewhat Tuesday, there was no indication that the obstacles to agreement were being cleared away.

New Orleans Sniper Probe Clouded

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Police have identified the sniper they killed on a hotel rooftop as a young Kansas black whose minister says he "hated white folks."

Supt. Clarence Giarrusso told a news conference Tuesday that the sniper was Mark J. Essex, 23, of Emporia and added: "There's some evidence of a conspiracy by other people, but I cannot positively tell you yet."

Six persons were shot to death and 17 injured in the sniping incident.

Giarrusso also said: — Ballistics prove a .44 magnum carbine found next to Essex' body was the same weapon that killed a young police cadet and wounded a policeman in New Orleans on New Year's Eve.

— Police "have evidence that would lead to both conclusions" — that Essex was the only sniper on the roof of the Downtown Howard Johnson's hotel, and that one or more fellow snipers were with him and escaped.

Asked whether his reference to conspiracy meant he had evidence Essex belonged to a militant organization, Giarrusso said:

"I'm not certain about that yet ... (but) conspiracy in the sense that it may have been two, three or four people; a small number — you know, it doesn't take many to form a conspiracy — who were intent to kill people. And that's the sum and essence of it."

He said the carbine was the same weapon that cut down cadet Alfred Harrell, 19, as he stepped in front of police headquarters 10 days ago and wounded Patrolman Edwin C. Hosli Sr., 18 minutes later a few blocks away.

At the time of the New Year's Eve shootings, Giarrusso said, "We had some information — reason to believe people were going to hurt someone when Harrell and Hosli were taken to Charity Hospital."

On the basis of that information, during the sniping he deployed extra officers at the hospital, where following a brief disturbance a man with a shotgun was arrested.

In Essex' hometown of Emporia, the Rev. W. A. Chambers, his family's minister, said young Essex had developed a militant dislike for whites

Adm. Moorer Had No Part In Bombing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff says the only reason given him for the heavy bombing of the Hanoi-Haiphong area last month was that it was a continuation of the administration's bomb-or-negotiate policy.

Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, asked by newsmen if the White House had given him a reason for ordering the bombing resumed Dec. 18, replied: "No, the situation was that the restrictions imposed in October were lifted."

Moorer, the Pentagon's top military strategist, talked with reporters Tuesday after briefing the House Appropriations and Armed Services committees on the 12 days of stepped-up bombing. His appearance marked the first administration response to congressional calls for a complete explanation of the bombing's effectiveness and the decision to resume it.

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird testified Monday that President Nixon's May 8 policy to bomb North Vietnam's industrial heartland and mine its key ports was suspended amid reports in October that peace was at hand. Laird said the bombing above the 20th Parallel was resumed when a settlement did not materialize.

Rep. Michael Harrington, D-Mass., said also he was disturbed by Moorer's remarks that he had been given no tactical reason for resuming the bombing in December.

"Perhaps the most disturbing element of today's hearing," Harrington said in a statement, "was that the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff was not involved in the decision-making process to resume the bombing."

when he came home from the Navy.

In Washington, the Navy said Essex was given a general discharge for unsuitability Feb. 10, 1970. A spokesman said this type of discharge involves "character and behavior disorders" but would not elaborate.

Meanwhile, police debated whether there was more than one sniper.

Giarrusso gave these reasons to think Essex wasn't alone:

— After his death, a helicopter which participated in a police seige on the hotel was fired upon. "You'd have to assume the police hit the plane (if Essex was alone). This is possible, but highly improbable."

— After Essex died, several policemen saw another person on the roof. "There were very, very many shots taken at this person while this person, or this ghost allegedly moved.... I can't believe that the policemen ... were all hallucinating."

— Policemen heard foul language and shouting and talking on the rooftop after Essex was killed.

Giarrusso cited these reasons for believing Essex acted alone.

— "There has been but one person found."

— "Our men insist the area was adequately sealed off."

However, under close questioning, Giarrusso conceded that "there was a time span prior to our receipt of the plans of the building that an unobvious exit from the roof would have enabled other persons, if there were any, to leave the roof and go to another floor."

He said he didn't know the length of the "time span," but that it was at the very beginning of the siege. Under more questioning, Giarrusso identified the "unobvious exit" as the elevator shaft.

Newsmen inside the hotel said police didn't begin guarding the bottom of the elevator shafts until after sunrise Monday — or nearly 24 hours after the shooting started.

Robert Bemish, 43, a broadcasting engineer hit by sniper fire, said Essex "was not the same man who shot me."

Police said Essex was wearing military fatigue pants with baggy pockets to carry shells.

Bemish, a guest at the hotel, declared: "The man who shot me had on a light tan jacket and brown slacks."

Jury Hears Watergate Evidence

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government prosecutor said today the seven Watergate defendants were operating under an assignment to sniff out plans for demonstrations against Republican speakers and uncover embarrassing facts about Democrats.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Earl J. Silbert, in his opening address to the jury, said the prosecution would try to prove that the operations were conducted under the direction of G. Gordon Liddy, a former White House and Treasury Department aide. He was general counsel for the Finance Committee to Re-elect the President at the time of the break-in at Democratic National Committee headquarters in Washington's Watergate complex last July 17.

Silbert told the jury that Liddy was given the espionage assignment by Jeb Stuart Magruder, formerly top lieutenant in the White House communications office and deputy director of President Nixon's reelection campaign, and Herbert Porter, scheduling director of the Committee for the Re-election of the President. Porter was also chief of the program of surrogate speakers who did much of Nixon's campaign in last year's presidential election.

NEW YORK (AP) — Prices were mixed in today's stock market in active trading after two sessions of minor declines.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was off .08 to 1,047.03, and declining issues on the New York Stock Exchange had a slight lead over gainers.

Brokers said investors were concerned about inflation, after the Labor Department report Tuesday that wholesale prices in December had soared 19.2 per cent on an annual basis, with food prices leading the boost.

AT&T was the Big Board's most-active issue, up 1/4 to 53 3/4. Most of the trading came in a block of 679,000 shares at 54.

Active issues on the American Stock Exchange included Houston Oil & Mineral, up 5/8 to 34 1/2. The company announced a gas discovery on Monday.

At noon the New York Stock Exchange index was down .07 to 65.22.

The price change index at the Amex was up .02 to 26.71.

Congress Moves Slowly On Spending

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate subcommittee launches hearings today on the first of 11 bills vetoed last year by President Nixon amid indications the Democratic Congress may move more slowly than anticipated in challenging his efforts to curb domestic spending.

Meanwhile, another hint of congressional readiness to establish its own budgetary limits could come as a special joint committee on budget control holds an organizational session.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield acknowledged after a meeting Tuesday with legislative committee chairmen that he was unable to get firm pledges on when they would have legislation ready for action by the full Senate.

Mansfield had hoped for a fast start on legislation, especially the 11 measures rejected by Nixon as too costly after Congress adjourned last October.

But chairmen of committees with jurisdiction over the bills said they will have to hold hearings, including testimony from administration spokesmen, before acting.

The first measures likely to come before the Senate are bills expanding federal programs for the aging and extending vocational rehabilitation for the handicapped.

Today's hearing, before a Labor and Public Welfare subcommittee, is on the vocational rehabilitation measure, which would authorize $800 million in the current fiscal year, which ends June 30, and $975 million in fiscal 1974.

Clements Jr., nominated to be deputy secretary of defense, omitted from periodic reports to the SEC any mention of a civil action charging Clements, the company and others with conspiracy and fraud.

In a letter to Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., SEC Secretary Ronald F. Hunt said agency investigators "do not have sufficient facts at this time" to determine whether the company, Sedco, Inc., of Dallas, Tex., violated SEC regulations on disclosure of pending legal action.

But, said Hunt, the SEC is in the process of obtaining various court records and is continuing an investigation requested by Proxmire last month.

Find Russia Hiked Aid To Syrians

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union delivered 18 MIG jet fighters to Syria only weeks before the outbreak of the new Syrian-Israeli air battles, U.S. intelligence sources report.

The fighter planes were landed last month by three Soviet cargo ships in what is described as the biggest sea shipment of Russian war materiel to Syria in 1972.

Included were 16 MIG 21s, two older MIG 17s and four helicopters, which, according to U.S. experts, brought to about 35 the number of MIG 21s Russia sent to Syria last year.

The MIG21 is rated as the best interceptor provided by Russia to its Arab and other allies.

Russia began a major buildup of Syria's military equipment last summer. This came after Egyptian President Anwar Sadat ordered thousands of Russian advisers to leave his country because, it was reported, Soviets would not give Egypt advanced offensive weapons, including bombardment missiles, to threaten Israel.

The Soviet Union sought to strengthen its position with the Damascus government in case the Russian fleet was forced to give up important bases in Egypt. The Syrian port of Latakia is regarded as an alternative.

Business News

Clay Howard area manager of H & R Block wishes to announce that all of his firm's offices are open for business. There are nine offices in this general area to serve your tax needs. The offices are located in the following cities: Lancaster, Athens, Circleville, Logan, Nelsonville, Glouster, McArthur, Wellston and Jackson.

Howard stated that this year the taxpayer will not only have to file a federal tax return, but they will also have to file an Ohio tax return. In the filing of an Ohio tax return you are limited to the number of exemptions you may claim. Such is not the case on the federal return. Also if you file a joint federal return, you must file a joint state return.

Howard further stated that this year on a federal return, Child and Dependent Care Deduction could become a big item. The maximum amount this year is $4,800 as compared to the $900 last year.

Clements Jr., nominated to be deputy secretary of defense, omitted from periodic reports to the SEC any mention of a civil action charging Clements, the company and others with conspiracy and fraud.

In a letter to Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., SEC Secretary Ronald F. Hunt said agency investigators "do not have sufficient facts at this time" to determine whether the company, Sedco, Inc., of Dallas, Tex., violated SEC regulations on disclosure of pending legal action.

But, said Hunt, the SEC is in the process of obtaining various court records and is continuing an investigation requested by Proxmire last month.

The Senate Armed Services Committee planned to take up Clements' nomination to the No. 2 Pentagon job today after a hearing into President Nixon's nomination of Elliot Richardson to be secretary of defense.

Proxmire asked the SEC to check Sedco's disclosure reports after The Associated Press reported last month that Clements, three business associates and Southeastern Drilling Co. (former name of Sedco) had been accused by an Argentine businessman of hiding millions in profits from one of the largest oil-drilling contracts in history.

The 1959-1963 contract to drill 1,000 wells in Argentina propelled Southeastern from a small domestic wildcat outfit to a worldwide operation and made Clements and his family millions from a $310 investment.

The businessman, Antonio A. Diaz of Buenos Aires, says Southeastern netted more than $25 million in profits instead of the $18 million it has reported. He seeks some $6 million in punitive damages and in addition all commissions he says are due for his help in obtaining the contract.

The company has admitted destroying many of its Argentine records, but says its netprofit figures are accurate.

The MIG21 is rated as the best interceptor provided by Russia to its Arab and other allies.

Russia began a major buildup of Syria's military equipment last summer. This came after Egyptian President Anwar Sadat ordered thousands of Russian advisers to leave his country because, it was reported, Soviets would not give Egypt advanced offensive weapons, including bombardment missiles, to threaten Israel.

The Soviet Union sought to strengthen its position with the Damascus government in case the Russian fleet was forced to give up important bases in Egypt. The Syrian port of Latakia is regarded as an alternative.

Blame Ice For Fatal Bus Crash

GREENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — State police say ice apparently caused a bus accident which claimed the life of one person and injured 10 others near this western Pennsylvania town.

Sixteen persons, including the driver, were on the Greyhound bus Tuesday night when it skidded off an icy, snow-covered bridge and plunged over a 35-foot embankment.

The accident occurred at the intersection of U.S. 22 and Pennsylvania 119, about 10 miles north of here.

"We swerved then spun around about three times before we went over the hill," said William Goshorn, 75, of Akron, Ohio, one of the uninjured passengers.

Goshorn, who was traveling to Altoona to visit relatives, said he crawled out the back window of the bus.

The dead man, whose identity remained unknown today, was pinned underneath the vehicle when it flipped over at the bottom of the embankment. He was dead on arrival at Westmoreland Hospital here.

The bus driver — Patrick Holzer, 45, of Pittsburgh — was taken to Westmoreland Hospital, where he was reported in fair condition. Six other persons were treated for minor injuries and released.

Four other passengers, all women, were taken to Latrobe Hospital, where their conditions were reported as serious. They were identified as Anne Meritt, 62, of Revloc; Clementine Glashauffer, 70, of Altoona; Betty Billett, 48, of State College; and Marion Claycomb, 73, also of Altoona.

Business News

Clay Howard area manager of H & R Block wishes to announce that all of his firm's offices are open for business. There are nine offices in this general area to serve your tax needs. The offices are located in the following cities: Lancaster, Athens, Circleville, Logan, Nelsonville, Glouster, McArthur, Wellston and Jackson.

Howard stated that this year the taxpayer will not only have to file a federal tax return, but they will also have to file an Ohio tax return. In the filing of an Ohio tax return you are limited to the number of exemptions you may claim. Such is not the case on the federal return. Also if you file a joint federal return, you must file a joint state return.

Howard further stated that this year on a federal return, Child and Dependent Care Deduction could become a big item. The maximum amount this year is $4,800 as compared to the $900 last year.

Dauterman, Largo, Fla.; three sisters, Mrs. Gladys Phelan, 119 Pariview Ave.; Mrs. Mabel Markwood, Lancaster; Mrs. Sadie Hartman, Route 4. She was a member of Tarlton United Methodist Church, Saltcreek Valley Grange and Pomona Grange.

A Page Of Opinion

Overnight Shrinkage

One year of unfavorable conditions over a wide area can make a dramatic difference in agricultural outlooks. Such a year has just ended.

After successes achieved in the 1960s through the introduction of faster-growing grain seeds and a renewed emphasis in some countries on better irrigation, a year ago it was widely predicted that the serious food shortages of the past were over.

Countries which had suffered repeated food shortages over the years were exporting grain after the 1971 harvests. The "green" revolution had brought dramatic improvements. Then came the deluges and droughts of 1972, which left crops in shambles in wide areas of Asia, Africa and parts of Europe.

Among the countries which have suffered serious reverses in farm output are the Soviet Union, China, the Philippines, Indonesia, South Korea, Malaysia, Cambodia, Thailand, Burma, India and that part of Africa surrounding the Sahara Desert.

India has gone from a record surplus to a need to import two million tons in one year. The picture is similarly bleak elsewhere. Starvation has returned, grain prices are high and, worst of all, there is no way of telling whether conditions for this year's crops will be better.

Bad as the situation is, the major grain producers — the United States, Canada and Australia — fortunately brought in record harvests. Nor is the "green" revolution of the 1960s a total loss. Without the improvement it brought to numerous farms before being interrupted by the uncontrollable weather, shortages of the moment would have been vastly more disastrous.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Wednesday, Jan. 10, the 10th day of 1973. There are 355 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:
On this date in 1946, the first general assembly of the United Nations convened in London.

On this date:
In 1776, the American revolutionist, Thomas Paine, published his pamphlet "Common Sense."

In 1861, Florida seceded from the Union.

In 1889, France established a protectorate over the Ivory Coast in Africa.

In 1928, one of the chief architects of the Soviet Union, Leon Trotsky, was ordered into exile.

In 1920, the League of Nations was established as the Treaty of Versailles went into effect.

In 1942, the Japanese invaded the Dutch East Indies in World War II.

Ten years ago: Ceylon's prime minister arrived in Peking on a mission of conciliation in a border dispute between India and China.

One year ago: A crowd of 500,000 turned out in Dacca to welcome the Bengali leader, Sheikh Mujib Rahman, after his release in Pakistan and return to Bangladesh.

Today's birthdays: Opera baritone Sherrill Milnes is 63. Actor and dancer Ray Bolger is 69.

Thought for today: Animals are such agreeable friends — they ask no questions, they pass no criticisms — George Eliot, pseudonym for Mary Ann Evans, English novelist, 1819-1880.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Have you noticed that, in a subtle way, tobacco advertisements and commercials are beginning to reappear on the television screen?

How do these differ from the old commercials for cigarettes that were banned because they represented a health hazard?

I teach at a college and am impressed by the fact that many students are passing around small cigars as well as cigarettes. They seem to think these little cigars are not dangerous. Is that true?

Mr. H.F., Conn.

Dear Mr. F.:

The slow but persistent invasion on the television screen by tobacco manufacturers is clearly apparent.

Once again, through the selling of these little cigars, smoking is glamorized, romanticized, and given the aura of love, masculinity, femininity and limitless happiness.

I assume that it won't be long before FCC rulings exert pressure on manufacturers to cease and desist from a practice that clearly attempts to circumnavigate the existing laws about cigarette advertising.

Pressure is being made by the American Cancer Society and by legislators to close the loophole that permits manufacturers to continue to sidestep their responsibility to the nation's health.

Scientific tests show that smoking little cigars and inhaling them as if they are cigarettes is distinctly injurious to health. The concentration of tars may be even higher than in some cigarettes.

Pressure by responsible citizen groups can be a persuasive influence in again clearing the television screens of this threat to good health.

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Cancer is the disease people dread the most, but heart disease takes twice as big a toll. The No. 1 killer, it claims each year the lives of 358,4 out of every 100,000 Americans. Cancer kills 160.9.

Natural disasters often take a greater toll of bird life than of animal or human life. For example, flights of migrating Lapland longspurs were caught in a vast, blinding, wet snowstorm over Minnesota and Iowa in 1904. Naturalists estimated that more than a million birds died.

Actually, however, even during its golden age under Pericles, Athens had a population of only 300,000 — smaller than that of Omaha. This is no knock on Omaha. It hasn't been around as long as Athens.

On the other hand, Chalcas, the soothsayer, died laughing because he thought he had outlived the predicted hour of his death.

It was Jonathan Swift who observed,

Every few weeks I get a painful lump in my armpit. Sometimes they are so painful that I can't get dressed. Could shaving or using a deodorant be responsible?

Mrs. C. D., Ga.

Dear Mrs. D.:

It is not uncommon, with people who shave too closely under the arms for germs to be introduced into the abrasions of the skin.

Some deodorants and antiperspirants can also be irritating, especially if one has a particular sensitivity to them.

Small abscesses can form and when these open, they may infect adjacent areas. Then scar tissue forms and resistance to infection may thus be diminished.

It might be wise to avoid shaving too closely, perhaps discontinuing all antiperspirants for a while.

Your doctor will probably culture the material that is expressed from these small abscesses.

Sometimes, a vaccine made from one's own germs can be effective.

Local use of antibiotic ointment, and rigid hygienic care may prevent the recurrences of these infections.

You should use nonallergic products for this area of your body.

Can toy turtles be dangerous to children who play with them?

Mrs. J. R., Ohio

Dear Mrs. R.:

Many Public Health bulletins have warned that turtles infected with the salmonella bacteria can transmit the germs to children who handle them. Pet turtles should NOT be brought into the home.

News For General Giap

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

We had 395 B-52s before the bombing of the Hanoi-Haiphong areas of North Vietnam began. Our two-week record of attrition has been somewhat dismaying, with approximately 15 B-52s shot down. Twelve more of the big superfortresses were badly damaged, and maybe half of these will never fly again. That shrinks our B-52 bomber fleet down, roughly, to some 375.

On the plus side we flew 1,500 sorties, surely wreaking catastrophic damage on North Vietnamese supply depots, oil storage tanks, air fields, railroad marshalling yards, warehouses, and thermal power plants. By comparison with World War II plane losses, we could even be said to have come off well. It would be surprising indeed if Hanoi were to recover in time to mount a new major attack on the South Vietnamese in the coming dry season. Nixon has given the Vietnamization program room in which to breathe, and, in addition, he has brought Hanoi back once more to the bargaining table.

According to "Aviation Week and Space Technology," the most authoritative journal in its field, we had to risk the B-52s in order to achieve a maximum shock effect as well as surprise. If we had mounted preliminary strikes by tactical aircraft, knocking out the SAM sites, the B-52s might have been able to continue the almost miraculous safety record of their first five years of the war. Nixon, however, obviously believed he had to hit North Vietnam hard and without warning in order to evoke the necessary political response.

It cannot be assumed that the North Vietnamese will prove tractable at the peace table once Kissinger gets talking again. Maybe they think Nixon would not dare risk any more B-52s in a future resumption of bombing above the 20th parallel. They should, however, be aware of a development that might utilize the power of the B-52 in an entirely new way.

Surely Hanoi's General Giap must know that our 42nd B-52 bomber wing at Loring Air Force Base in Maine has been fitted out with the new air-to-ground missile known as the SRAM. Twenty of these missiles can be carried by an individual B-52. The news from Boeing, as of last March, was that 85 SRAMs had been delivered to the Air Force. Five of them have been tested live at the White Sands Test Range in New Mexico. At the moment they happen to be fitted with atomic warheads to serve as a deterrent against a sudden atomic attack by the Soviet Union.

However, it would be easy enough to refit the SRAMs with conventional warheads, in which case the B-52s could fire them at North Vietnamese strategic targets from a distance of 100 miles away. Not a single B-52 would be risked in any such attack.

Since it takes time to train a crew to utilize a new weapons system, the SRAMs weren't quite ready to serve Nixon's ends when he needed them after the October 1972 peace "agreement" turned out to be no agreement. But if the talks break down again, General Giap must reckon with the possibility that B-52s from Maine might be moving half way across the world to hit Haiphong and Hanoi with SRAMs armed with quite lethal non-atomic warheads. Congress would not have to put up extra money for that, for the 42nd B-52 bomber wing already has operational capability.

Along with the SRAM, the U.S. has good diplomatic weapons to use to gain a peace that will enable South Vietnam to keep its sovereignty. It wasn't so very long ago that a cryptic story out of Washington "suggested" that the proposed delivery of oil and gas-pipe equipment to Siberia might not be a good economic investment for the U.S. Since the Occidental Petroleum Corporation has been conducting talks in Moscow about a "joint exploitation" of Siberian oil and natural gas, the Washington "leak" came as something of a surprise to oil men.

What this column deduces is that the Administration, in putting out the story, was wigwagging to Moscow that no investment help from the U.S. could be expected if Hanoi continued to get anti-aircraft weapons. If and when the Siberian oil deal is on again, we may assume that the Soviets have caught the hint.

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated here Thursday for H. Jack Schrage, executive secretary of the Ohio Thoroughbred Breeders and Owners Association.

The Cincinnati area resident, who was 63, died Monday at Providence Hospital. He had been hospitalized since Saturday after suffering a stroke.

Schrage also was business manager of the Ohio Thoroughbred Magazine, the official publication of the breeders and owners association.

The ferocity of lions and tigers is often exaggerated, usually as an excuse for killing them in the name of sport.

A Page Of Opinion

Overnight Shrinkage

One year of unfavorable conditions over a wide area can make a dramatic difference in agricultural outlooks. Such a year has just ended.

After successes achieved in the 1960s through the introduction of faster-growing grain seeds and a renewed emphasis in some countries on better irrigation, a year ago it was widely predicted that the serious food shortages of the past were over.

Countries which had suffered repeated food shortages over the years were exporting grain after the 1971 harvests. The "green" revolution had brought dramatic improvements. Then came the deluges and droughts of 1972, which left crops in shambles in wide areas of Asia, Africa and parts of Europe.

Among the countries which have suffered serious reverses in farm output are the Soviet Union, China, the Philippines, Indonesia, South Korea, Malaysia, Cambodia, Thailand, Burma, India and that part of Africa surrounding the Sahara Desert.

India has gone from a record surplus to a need to import two million tons in one year. The picture is similarly bleak elsewhere. Starvation has returned, grain prices are high and, worst of all, there is no way of telling whether conditions for this year's crops will be better.

Bad as the situation is, the major grain producers — the United States, Canada and Australia — fortunately brought in record harvests. Nor is the "green" revolution of the 1960s a total loss. Without the improvement it brought to numerous farms before being interrupted by the uncontrollable weather, shortages of the moment would have been vastly more disastrous.

Say Ziegler Ousted Klein

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ronald L. Ziegler has emerged victorious in a power struggle over reorganization of White House public relations machinery and will soon be named President Nixon's principal adviser on information policy, The Washington Post reported today.

Ziegler, 33, who has been the President's press secretary, also will continue in that role, the newspaper said.

It said Herbert G. Klein, 54, who has been White House communications director, will leave the government in the near future.

But Klein, one of the President's veteran associates, wouldn't confirm this Monday. "I haven't determined when I'm going to leave or what I'm going to do ... I haven't made any determination except that I don't expect to stay indefinitely."

The Post said Ziegler will take over Klein's responsibilities, in addition to keeping his own duties as head of the White House press operation.

Plea For Self-Regulation Of Children's TV Heard

WASHINGTON (AP) — The television industry has responded to a petition to prohibit all commercials on children's programs with a plea that it be allowed to continue with self-regulation.

"This is not so much a plea for gradualism but rather a plea to use the apparatus we have," Stockton Helffrich, director of the National Association of Broadcasters' code authority, told the Federal Communications Commission Monday.

"... In the current climate of change, where all of us want improvements in our society's imperfections which most stand out, there is a prevailing temptation to malign and negate that which has been laboriously built..."

"The code—in my opinion, wisely—makes haste slowly. It cannot move faster than the necessary fact-gathering and due process permit. That is a positive, really; where the establishment of new policies pertain, better right than sorry."

Helffrich told the commission he questions a suggestion that a minority of public members be added to the code review board.

That suggestion was advanced by the Rev. Edward A. Powers, general secretary of the division of Christian education of the United Church of Christ.

"The NAB code review board," he said, "should be augmented by the presence of public members to evaluate children's programming and to act as advisers to the NAB board of directors with respect to the needs of children and how they should be fulfilled."

The Rev. Mr. Powers said these members should not be named by the industry, but rather by such groups as the League of Women Voters, the National Education Association, the AFL-CIO, and Action for Children's Television—ACT.

Solitary Vinton County Doctor At Odds With Patients

MCARTHUR, Ohio (AP) — A gas station attendant, like many a McArthur resident, griped about Dr. Altaf Hussain, the only doctor in Vinton County.

"He keeps office hours and won't see anybody other than those," he said.

Across the street, a man struggled to express how he felt about the 40-year-old Pakistani physician. "You'll understand what people think of him after you talk to him," he finally said. "You'll see. He's so different."

Dr. Hussain crisply countered: "I'm a modern doctor. I want to practice modern medicine."

Old and new, custom and change, the old-fashioned general practitioner and the brisk new breed, who moves patients through his office like big city doctors.

For a year now conflict has boiled in this hill county on the fringe of Appalachia, ever since a citizen search committee found Dr. Hussain in a miners' clinic in Washington County, Pa., in November, 1972.

The nervous question was: Will Dr. Hussain remain in Vinton County or will he leave the county's 9,424 residents without a doctor to call their own?

In the last half-century, 12 doctors have come to Vinton County, lingered awhile and then quit. Dr. Richard Bullock was the latest.

For 23 years he practiced medicine in rural Vinton County, the last dozen years as the only doctor in the county. Day after day he saw endless streams of patients, some of whom brought brown bag lunches for morning appointments. They might not be examined until 2 a.m. the next morning. Dr. Bullock sometimes slept what was left of a night in his office.

The routine broke his home and made him what local residents called "moody." Eventually it drove him out of McArthur, and left Vinton County without a doctor for nine months.

Dr. Hussain broke that routine. He keeps 9-to-noon hours in his downtown McArthur office. He sees patients briskly in a green examination room, asks brief, staccato questions, writes in a manila file folder and then rapidly dispenses prescriptions.

"I met him three times and he still doesn't remember my name," said the gas station attendant. "He won't take patients when they come in. He's never there when people need him."

Dr. Hussain said: "It's very difficult to get a general practitioner in a rural area. They have to do something for it."

The something appeared in Dr. Hussain's mind to be paying bills on time, perhaps appointing him county health commissioner and being loyal.

Dr. Hussain said he would avoid seeing any patient outside office hours — if he went 30 miles to an Athens hospital or clinic, frequented a chiropractor who moved shop three days a week to McArthur after Hussain's arrival, or saw another physician for a diagnosis.

funniest I've ever seen. There is always all this smalltown talk. They're very mean, very conservative."

"That's just not true," said a prominent McArthur woman. "He was accepted with open arms. When he first came here he had more patients than he could handle."

"Why would we want to run our only doctor out of town?" she asked. "I think Dr. Hussain's problem is he just likes to talk."

Things may be looking up. "It's difficult for any foreigner to come into an old established community and be accepted," said the chiropractor, Dr. Herman Shuttleworth. "These people have not been exposed to his kind of big city methods. They seem to accept him a lot better now."

25 a day, but in recent weeks the number has been growing.

Hussain holds degrees from King Edwards Medical College of Lahore, Pakistan, with postgraduate work in surgery in London, and internships in Chicago and Milwaukee. He settled his wife and three children in the United States about 18 months ago.

Dr. Shuttleworth said, "He has the ability to diagnose from a physical examination, which is what a small community needs that's not accessible to modern facilities." Still the basic question isn't resolved. Dr. Hussain lives and practices in McArthur, but he hangs his only shingle in Nelsonville in neighboring Athens County. McArthur patients have to know Dr. Hussain's office is in the dentist's building, because there is no sign outside.

"I'm watching my Nelsonville practice very carefully," said Dr. Hussain, who spends his afternoons there. But, he said his transplant in Ohio is permanent enough that he bought land in the north part of Vinton County on which to build a home.

McArthur residents don't easily discuss the situation, but a prominent citizen said worriedly, "I'd hate like the dickens to see him leave. I don't know the next time we'll get a doctor."

Rhodesia 'Liberation Army' In Action With Red Arms

LONDON (AP) — Under a moonless sky on the night of Dec. 21 ragged-trousered raiders opened fire with rockets and bullets on Marc De Borchgrave's lonely farm house in the Zambezi Valley of Rhodesia.

Two nights later the black guerrillas struck again, against neighbor Archie Dagleish's place, where the De Borchgraves had taken refuge.

Within a few hours, a Jeepload of four Rhodesian soldiers taking part in a big sweep ran over a land mine.

The world's newest "liberation army" was in action. It even has its own Ho Chi Minh Trail, meandering from base camps in neighboring Mozambique to the sunbaked bushlands of northeast Rhodesia, 120 miles north of Salisbury, the capital.

Equipped also, the Rhodesians say, with a modern armory of weapons from the Soviet Union or China.

The Zimbabwe African National Liberation Army, or Zanla, has vowed to wrest Rhodesia — which it calls

Zimbabwe — from the grip of Premier Ian Smith's white minority government.

Since they still hope to play a role in Rhodesia, the British are following with great interest these developments in the African territory that declared its independence in 1965.

British experts think the black guerrillas have a long way to go and a lot to learn before they can pose any real threat to Smith's forces. In eight years of sporadic campaigning, they have achieved little.

Yet authorities here acknowledge the danger to the white regime is certain to increase as Zanla improves its techniques and its links with rebel movements in neighboring countries. The nearest and strongest of these is the Front for the Liberation of Mozambique, or Frelimo. By ambushes, night raids, mining of roads and railroads, Frelimo for years has pinned down thousands of Portuguese troops.

New fighting in northeast Rhodesia

also creates yet another front for Smith's limited forces. Already he has 1,000 miles of frontier to defend eastward against incursions from Frelimo units in Mozambique, to the northwest against Zanla raids from Zambia, and on the southwest where Rhodesia meets Botswana. He is being helped by South African police units, and he is pressing for ever fiercer action by Portuguese forces.

This week Smith called up army, police and air force reservists to meet the developing emergency.

The British are hoping that time and experience will yet convince Smith's regime that its ultimate salvation lies in a constitutional settlement with Britain.

Family Short 5 Bedrooms, But Dad Glad It's Quints

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — James Baer says his house is "short five bedrooms" but he still calls the birth of quintuplets to his wife a "miracle and a blessing."

"I don't know what one baby costs, let alone five," Baer told newsmen Monday at Evanston Hospital, where the five-day-old quints were rushed shortly after their birth Friday in Highland Park Hospital.

The three girls and two boys born to his wife, Lynn, 26, were the Baers' first children. The 30-year-old Northbrook stockbroker confirmed reports that his wife had taken fertility drugs and added, "If we had it to do over again, we would have repeated everything we've done. My wife and I wanted a family more than anything in the world and God knows we finally succeeded. . . ."

The infants, ranging in weight from 1 pound, 11 ounces to 2 pounds, 14 ounces, are "beyond the most difficult period" said Dr. Thomas Gardner, the neonatology specialist caring for them.

Gardner guessed the infants would spend two months in Evanston Hospital, a referral center for premature and high risk babies.

He said all five children were receiving milk via nasal and gastric tubes and their color was good.

"Their chances for survival are quite good," he said.

Mrs. Baer was reported in excellent condition in Highland Park Hospital. Baer said he has had one "commercial offer" involving the infants and that he has not had the time to think about the added financial responsibilities.

Recalling the moments during the birth of the quints, Baer said, "When I heard a doctor say, 'My God, there's another one,' I knew we had got more than the twins we had counted on."

Baer said he was seated on the floor in the fathers' waiting room when he learned the news of the fifth birth — "I just couldn't stand up any longer."

Solitary Vinton County Doctor At Odds With Patients

MCARTHUR, Ohio (AP) — A gas station attendant, like many a McArthur resident, griped about Dr. Altaf Hussain, the only doctor in Vinton County.

"He keeps office hours and won't see anybody other than those," he said.

Across the street, a man struggled to express how he felt about the 40-year-old Pakistani physician. "You'll understand what people think of him after you talk to him," he finally said. "You'll see. He's so different."

Dr. Hussain crisply countered: "I'm a modern doctor. I want to practice modern medicine."

Old and new, custom and change, the old-fashioned general practitioner and the brisk new breed, who moves patients through his office like big city doctors.

For a year now conflict has boiled in this hill county on the fringe of Appalachia, ever since a citizen search committee found Dr. Hussain in a miners' clinic in Washington County, Pa., in November, 1972.

The nervous question was: Will Dr. Hussain remain in Vinton County or will he leave the county's 9,424 residents without a doctor to call their own?

In the last half-century, 12 doctors have come to Vinton County, lingered awhile and then quit. Dr. Richard Bullock was the latest.

For 23 years he practiced medicine in rural Vinton County, the last dozen years as the only doctor in the county. Day after day he saw endless streams of patients, some of whom brought brown bag lunches for morning appointments. They might not be examined until 2 a.m. the next morning. Dr. Bullock sometimes slept what was left of a night in his office.

The routine broke his home and made him what local residents called "moody." Eventually it drove him out of McArthur, and left Vinton County without a doctor for nine months.

Dr. Hussain broke that routine. He keeps 9-to-noon hours in his downtown McArthur office. He sees patients briskly in a green examination room, asks brief, staccato questions, writes in a manila file folder and then rapidly dispenses prescriptions.

"I met him three times and he still doesn't remember my name," said the gas station attendant. "He won't take patients when they come in. He's never there when people need him."

Dr. Hussain said: "It's very difficult to get a general practitioner in a rural area. They have to do something for it."

The something appeared in Dr. Hussain's mind to be paying bills on time, perhaps appointing him county health commissioner and being loyal.

Dr. Hussain said he would avoid seeing any patient outside office hours — if he went 30 miles to an Athens hospital or clinic, frequented a chiropractor who moved shop three days a week to McArthur after Hussain's arrival, or saw another physician for a diagnosis.

In conservative Vinton County this attitude has bred hostility among the hill folk.

"For 20 deliveries," said Dr. Hussain, "I have been paid for only two. Now I make them pay in advance."

He said welfare medical payments were six months behind.

He's getting some backing from the local drug store. A sign on its cash register read: "We take no new accounts. Emergency prescriptions for less than $5 payable within 10 days."

Dr. Hussain has muted his criticisms, particularly his earlier charges of racial bias. "Patients don't come because I'm a foreigner," he used to say. "Some people tried to run me out of town, but I fought back. I'm staying."

One newspaper quoted him as saying, "The people here are the funniest I've ever seen. There is always all this smalltown talk. They're very mean, very conservative."

"That's just not true," said a prominent McArthur woman. "He was accepted with open arms. When he first came here he had more patients than he could handle."

"Why would we want to run our only doctor out of town?" she asked. "I think Dr. Hussain's problem is he just likes to talk."

Things may be looking up. "It's difficult for any foreigner to come into an old established community and be accepted," said the chiropractor, Dr. Herman Shuttleworth. "These people have not been exposed to his kind of big city methods. They seem to accept him a lot better now."

Dr. Hussain said: "They should appreciate my sacrifice. I left a well-paid job — the highest on the staff with just a little paper work — to come here."

His wife, dressed smartly in a lavender, purple and red pants suit in geometric design, added: "People should realize they need a doctor here. They should accept that we are different as we accept their difference."

During the year-long controversy, Dr. Hussain's patients dropped to 10 to 25 a day, but in recent weeks the number has been growing.

Hussain holds degrees from King Edwards Medical College of Lahore, Pakistan, with postgraduate work in surgery in London, and internships in Chicago and Milwaukee. He settled his wife and three children in the United States about 18 months ago.

Dr. Shuttleworth said, "He has the ability to diagnose from a physical examination, which is what a small community needs that's not accessible to modern facilities." Still the basic question isn't resolved. Dr. Hussain lives and practices in McArthur, but he hangs his only shingle in Nelsonville in neighboring Athens County. McArthur patients have to know Dr. Hussain's office is in the dentist's building, because there is no sign outside.

"I'm watching my Nelsonville practice very carefully," said Dr. Hussain, who spends his afternoons there. But, he said his transplant in Ohio is permanent enough that he bought land in the north part of Vinton County on which to build a home.

McArthur residents don't easily discuss the situation, but a prominent citizen said worriedly, "I'd hate like the dickens to see him leave. I don't know the next time we'll get a doctor."

Rhodesia 'Liberation Army' In Action With Red Arms

LONDON (AP) — Under a moonless sky on the night of Dec. 21 ragged-trousered raiders opened fire with rockets and bullets on Marc De Borchgrave's lonely farm house in the Zambezi Valley of Rhodesia.

Two nights later the black guerrillas struck again, against neighbor Archie Dagleish's place, where the De Borchgraves had taken refuge.

Within a few hours, a Jeepload of four Rhodesian soldiers taking part in a big sweep ran over a land mine.

The world's newest "liberation army" was in action. It even has its own Ho Chi Minh Trail, meandering from base camps in neighboring Mozambique to the sunbaked bushlands of northeast Rhodesia, 120 miles north of Salisbury, the capital.

Equipped also, the Rhodesians say, with a modern armory of weapons from the Soviet Union or China.

The Zimbabwe African National Liberation Army, or Zanla, has vowed to wrest Rhodesia — which it calls

Zimbabwe — from the grip of Premier Ian Smith's white minority government.

Since they still hope to play a role in Rhodesia, the British are following with great interest these developments in the African territory that declared its independence in 1965.

British experts think the black guerrillas have a long way to go and a lot to learn before they can pose any real threat to Smith's forces. In eight years of sporadic campaigning, they have achieved little.

Yet authorities here acknowledge the danger to the white regime is certain to increase as Zanla improves its techniques and its links with rebel movements in neighboring countries. The nearest and strongest of these is the Front for the Liberation of Mozambique, or Frelimo. By ambushes, night raids, mining of roads and railroads, Frelimo for years has pinned down thousands of Portuguese troops.

New fighting in northeast Rhodesia

also creates yet another front for Smith's limited forces. Already he has 1,000 miles of frontier to defend eastward against incursions from Frelimo units in Mozambique, to the northwest against Zanla raids from Zambia, and on the southwest where Rhodesia meets Botswana. He is being helped by South African police units, and he is pressing for ever fiercer action by Portuguese forces.

This week Smith called up army, police and air force reservists to meet the developing emergency.

The British are hoping that time and experience will yet convince Smith's regime that its ultimate salvation lies in a constitutional settlement with Britain.

Family Short 5 Bedrooms, But Dad Glad It's Quints

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — James Baer says his house is "short five bedrooms" but he still calls the birth of quintuplets to his wife a "miracle and a blessing."

"I don't know what one baby costs, let alone five," Baer told newsmen Monday at Evanston Hospital, where the five-day-old quintuplets were rushed shortly after their birth Friday in Highland Park Hospital.

The three girls and two boys born to his wife, Lynn, 26, were the Baers' first children. The 30-year-old Northbrook stockbroker confirmed reports that his wife had taken fertility drugs and added, "If we had it to do over again, we would have repeated everything we've done. My wife and I wanted a family more than anything in the world and God knows we finally succeeded."

The infants, ranging in weight from 1 pound, 11 ounces to 2 pounds, 14 ounces, are "beyond the most difficult period" said Dr. Thomas Gardner, the neonatology specialist caring for them.

Gardner guessed the infants would spend two months in Evanston Hospital, a referral center for premature and high risk babies.

He said all five children were receiving milk via nasal and gastric tubes and their color was good.

"Their chances for survival are quite good," he said.

Mrs. Baer was reported in excellent condition in Highland Park Hospital. Baer said he has had one "commercial offer" involving the infants and that he has not had the time to think about the added financial responsibilities.

Recalling the moments during the birth of the quintuplets, Baer said, "When I heard a doctor say, 'My God, there's another one,' I knew we had got more than the twins we had counted on."

Baer said he was seated on the floor in the fathers' waiting room when he learned the news of the fifth birth — "I just couldn't stand up any longer."

Slides Of Taiwan Viewed

By Ashville Civic Club

The January meeting of Ashville Women's Civic Club, a member of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, was held Thursday in the home of Chaplain and Mrs. Mark Fairless Route 1, Ashville.

Roll call was answered by the 28 members attending telling the approximate number of volunteer hours given this past year. The business meeting was opened with members repeating the club collect. Mrs. Donald Flierl led devotions. Georgia Dore, Christmas chairty chairman, reported on the committee's activities.

Program chairman, Mrs. Helen Hedges, presented Mrs. Fairless who showed slides of Taiwan where she and her husband lived while he was stationed there for two years. The Fairless home is furnished with beautiful furniture that was made for them in Taiwan. Mrs. Fairless displayed articles that were hand made by the people of Taiwan and explained a little about each one as she also described the slides. Chaplain Fairless is currently stationed in Lockbourne Air Force Base.

Mrs. Fairless said that Taiwan is scarcely larger than the state of Maryland, is 235 miles long and 90 miles wide, and 15 million people live on the island, shaped like a tobacco leaf. It is the home of Nationalist China. Generalissimo Chiang Kae Shek and two million followers took refuge there in 1949.

The first picture shown was of the Grand Hotel that will help accommodate the million or so visitors Taiwan expects during the 1973-74 season. Taiwan in 20 years has become one of the most prosperous small nations in the world.

Mrs. Fairless greeted her guests in a dress made by her sewing lady without using a pattern, just by specifications given to her.

At the close of the meeting each member bought a dress as a beginning of Fun Night to be held in April. At the next meeting all members are to bring a hat for sale.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Fairless assisted by Mrs. Linda Hoffsis and Mrs. Stella Morrison.

The February meeting will be in the home of Helen Hedges, Route 1, Ashville with an international smorgasbord beginning at 6:30 p.m. A nominating committee will be elected.

Ohio ASCS Still Pending

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A federal agricultural official said Tuesday the selection of three Ohioans to oversee state operations of the U.S. Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service is still pending.

E. J. Person, deputy administrator of the service in Washington, said an announcement naming Ohio's three committee members and members for the other states will be made soon.

Dwight Harris, Ohio executive director of the service, said the appointments are normally made in December for the upcoming year. He said he has received no reason for the delay.

But he added, "I think it is just part of the current review that has started from President Nixon down to the various departments. And they have gotten to this level."

The job of the three committee members is to oversee operation of agricultural service programs involving crop production, price supports and conservation.

Harris said the committee vacancies have not caused any major problems in the operation of the office.

Midwife Service Operates Despite California Law

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. (AP) — Despite a California law barring the practice, seven local women operate a midwife service for expectant mothers who want to give birth at home "no matter what."

"We want to help people who want to have babies at home like me," Dora Gruver said in an interview Monday. "It used to be that people were scared to do it because there was no one to help them. Now they realize they can have what they want."

Mrs. Gruver, 22, said she "doesn't feel like a criminal" although she knows midwifery is illegal in California.

"The authorities have left us alone and the doctors hate us but leave us alone," she said. "We're not hiring anyone. It's a satisfying experience for me and for the people I'm doing it for."

Santa Cruz County Dist. Atty. Peter Chang said officials are concerned about the practice but it is hard to prove a case since most people who use midwives will not take them to court.

The midwives educate the woman and her husband about pregnancy and give training in natural childbirth, Mrs. Gruver said.

"We're not one sided," said Mrs. Gruver, who runs a local seed store with her husband. "We tell some women they'd be better off in a hospital."

"But some women are going to have them at home no matter what. While I feel it is in a sense unsafe, I'd rather have me there with a little bit of knowledge than have them do it without any."

She said since the group founded Birth Center 1½ years ago, its midwives have delivered more than 100 babies. She said only one infant was stillborn, and seven women needing medical attention were taken to hospital emergency wards and recovered fully.

However, she said only one of the midwives is a registered nurse, and local doctors will not come to a woman's home to assist if there is a complication.

Woman Deputy Port Warden Owes Job To Women's Lib

LOS ANGELES (AP) — With a pistol on her hip, Joellen Natow walks gangplanks and climbs ship ladders in Los Angeles harbor, getting big smiles from craggy-faced longshoremen.

PTA News

The January meeting of Westfall-Jackson Parent Teacher Boosters was called to order by President Betty Stevenson. The Lord's Prayer and the pledge to the flag were recited.

Motions were approved to contribute $425 for purchase of new stage curtains for the auditorium and to purchase ribbons for science fair awards.

Family Fun Night will be April 13. Mrs. Dolly Thompson is the chairman for this project. The program included the arts and crafts display, judged by Mrs. Glenn Yapple.

Hair Dye Used To Brand Cattle

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP) — Dr. Kenneth L. Macmillan, a scientist, has evolved a new method of marking cattle by adapting a women's beauty treatment.

Watching his wife tinting her hair, Dr. Macmillan decided to apply the same principle to chemical branding cattle at the breeding center where he works. Beauty parlor dyes were not entirely satisfactory, so he produced his own preparation of modified hair dye and peroxide bleach.

When the concoction is painted on cattle, it provides a semi-permanent branding.

"It's really nice to see something pretty around here instead of the same old cops," observed a veteran welder as Mrs. Natow passed by.

Harbor officials here say Mrs. Natow is the first female deputy port warden to serve at any major port in the United States.

"Along the wharfs and aboard the ships the longshoremen grin and wave at me," said Mrs. Natow, 29. "Some even shake my hand."

As deputy port warden, Mrs. Natow boards foreign and American vessels in the 3,000-acre harbor to inspect flammable cargos for proper handling and to check fueling operations as a guard against pollution.

Mrs. Natow also handles theft complaints from women working at a harbor cannery and teaches classes in female self-defense.

Since the Harbor Patrol works with the Coast Guard and other government agencies against illegal transportation of aliens and the smuggling of dangerous drugs, she is armed with a .38-caliber revolver.

A city policewoman for four years prior to joining the Harbor Patrol, Mrs. Natow is married to a motorcycle policeman and is the mother of two sons, Scott, 8, and Todd, 10.

Along with the 41 male deputies on duty in Los Angeles harbor, Mrs. Natow patrols by boat, car, helicopter, and motorcycle.

Pat Grutsch, chief deputy port warden, says Mrs. Natow owes her job to the woman's liberation movement.

"The people downtown said I'd have to take a woman on the force, and I thought it would be great," he said.

Sex wasn't the only obstacle Mrs. Natow had to overcome. She also had to learn the language of the port, such as, "There's a camel loose in the channel. Get a seagull to pick it up."

And Mrs. Natow now says confidently that that translates to, "A wharf pile is afloat, and we need a refuse boat to pick it up."

Wholesale Farm Price Rise Largest In Past 26 Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wholesale farm prices posted the biggest monthly increase in 26 years last month with a climb of 6.8 per cent, the government reported Tuesday.

The report, by the Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics, blamed weather damage to crops as the main reason for the big increase.

The sharp climb in food prices boosted the government's over-all wholesale price index 1.8 per cent in December, the largest in 22 years. The increase was slightly less, 1.6 per cent, on a seasonally adjusted basis.

Prices of a broad range of industrial raw materials rose three-tenths of 1 per cent while wholesale consumer finished goods ready for market at retail had climbed 1.2 per cent, the report said.

The big increase in prices of farm products, largely uncontrolled by federal price regulations, included boosts of 21.1 per cent for grains, 16.9 per cent for eggs, 13.6 per cent for hay and oil seeds, 9.4 per cent for livestock, 7.8 per cent for plant and animal fibers, eight-tenths of 1 per cent for poultry and one-tenth of 1 per cent for milk.

The only declines was 5.1 per cent for fruits and vegetables.

Grains were 44.1 per cent higher than a year ago, livestock was 22.4 per cent above last year and eggs were up 25.8 per cent over the year.

The rise in prices of farm products was the largest since March 1947 and the over-all rise in all wholesales prices was the biggest since January 1951, the bureau said.

Solzhenitsyn Denied Divorce Permission

MOSCOW (AP) — Alexander Solzhenitsyn has been denied permission by Soviet authorities to divorce his first wife, friends of the Nobel prize-winning Russian novelist report.

They said Monday that the Supreme Court of the Russian Republic ruled recently that his marriage to Natalya Reshetovskaya is still valid. They were married in 1940.

Jagger Denied Visa For Japanese Show

TOKYO (AP) — Rock musician Mick Jagger has been denied a visa by the Justice Ministry to lead his Rolling Stones in a series of five concerts scheduled to start here Jan. 28.

The ministry said today its denial was based on a past conviction of the British musician on a drug charge. It said it had no objections to a Japanese visit by the other 19 persons in Jagger's group.

Lottery Is Held For 103 Apartments

TOKYO (AP) — The Tokyo government offered 103 apartments for sale Monday and got 38,298 applications. It decided the buyers by a lottery.

The prices of the apartments in a 14-story building ranged from $23,940 to $26,457, about 30 per cent cheaper than comparable apartments sold by private companies. Most consisted of three rooms and a kitchen.

WINTER'S BEAUTY —Icy coating on a branch along a road near Mansfield provides seasonal decoration. Nature's production is accentuated by camera closeup.

Most car makers recommend a 44-45 per cent antifreeze to water mixture, says Modine Manufacturing Co., maker of automotive cooling system components. Less than one-third antifreeze solution could endanger an engine during a hard freeze. More than 60 per cent antifreeze lessens its effectiveness.

Pork Chops Found In Baptismal Font

HUDDESFIELD, England (AP) — The Rev. Peter Spivey dipped his fingers into the font to baptize little Graeme Charles Heppenstall and exclaimed, "Good Lord! Three pork chops."

When the 52-year-old vicar of Meltham village held up the three chops, the congregation roared. He said he assumed the meat had been dropped in the font by a drunk he found passed out in front of it on Saturday night.

Duchess Of Windsor Suffers Broken Bone

PARIS (AP) — The Duchess of Windsor is "coming along fine" after an operation for a broken hip bone, her secretary reported today.

The secretary, John Utter, said the 76-year-old duchess had fallen several times and complained last week that she had difficulty in walking. X-rays showed a break in the bone at the top of the thigh.

An operation was performed last Thursday.

Lukens Account Filed Late; Could Kill Plans For 1974

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Sen. Donald E. "Buzz" Lukens did not file his expense account for the November election on time and cannot be a political candidate for five years, Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said Tuesday.

Brown said the Butler County Board of Elections did not receive Lukens' statement until Jan. 3. It was due Dec. 22, 45 days after the election.

Lukens has for several weeks been saying he would be a Republican candidate for governor in 1974.

Brown said he was informed of the late filing this morning and told State GOP Chairman John S. Andrews of the development.

Lukens, 41, told The Associated Press the statement — listing no receipts and no expenses — was the second one he filed. He said the board did not receive the first.

"I am sure this thing can be cleared up," he said. "I sent one and the board called me before the deadline and told me I hadn't filed. I told them I had mailed one and they said, 'Mail another.' I did. I don't know what happened."

Lukens was irked at Brown because he had talked to Andrews and a newsman prior to informing Lukens. "I think it was very discourteous," he said. "He got publicity at my expense."

Lukens, a former congressman, was appointed to the state senate two years ago after a surprising second-place showing in a three-man race for governor.

The Middletown Republican won the Fourth District seat in his own right Nov. 7. Lukens is a former national president of the Young Republicans.

Brown said Ohio law provides only that an expense statement be filed within 45 days. Although his office and the courts often recognize later statements postmarked prior to the deadline, he said the law doesn't go into that area.

Lukens' statement was 11 days late. Brown said Lukens would have to prove by sworn statements any contention that it was lost in the postal system.

A candidate who does not file on time can hold the seat he was elected to but cannot run for any political office for five years, Brown said. That is the only penalty.

Amanda Council Elects First Woman President

Mrs. Elsie Davis is the first woman to be elected president of the Amanda village council.

The widow of Robert Davis, she was appointed to serve on council early in 1971 following the death of her husband, a member of the council at the time of his death and a former mayor.

Appointments made by the council recently included Burton Hilyard Streets, street commissioner; Donald Folk, Trenton Abbott and Robert Hansley, sewage committee; Mrs. Davis, utilities.

The council extended its appreciation to the members of the Amanda Volunteer Fire Department and all others who donated time and money to purchase and install new Christmas decorations in the village.

Freeze On Housing Starts Criticized

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Sen. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, Tuesday criticized the Nixon administration's decision to freeze federally-subsidized housing starts.

Taft said the freeze, announced in Houston, Tex. by outgoing Secretary of Housing and Urban Development George Romney, "seems justified in some respects."

Saturday — youth art and crafts.

'Pinocchio' Show Slated With Marionette Troupe

Saturday, the nationally-acclaimed Bobby Clark marionettes will bring the enchanting world of "Pinocchio" to the stage of the Teays Valley auditorium in three performances.

The Clark troupe features 102 life-size marionettes in the telling of this timeless children's classic. Sponsoring organization is the Ashville PTA.

The marionette performances have been a hit from coast to coast. In a single Easter week at Madison Square Garden, the Clark production grossed an amazing $134,000.

Performance times are 10:30 a.m. and 2 and 7 p.m. Tickets are on sale at Pickaway County Schools and will be available, as long as they last, at the door prior to each performance.

Anyone having questions about the showings are asked to call 983-3621 or 983-2219.

SYDNEY (AP) — The two-week-old boycott protesting the American bombing of North Vietnam was called off Tuesday by the Australian Maritime Union. Two other unions involved in the boycott are expected to follow suit.

Maritime Union Secretary Elliott V. Elliott said the boycott was stopped at the request of the Australian Council of Trade Unions, but that members had the right to resume it. He said the ban

NO. 24955
In pursuance of the order of the Common Pleas Court of Pickaway County, Ohio, Probate Division, I will offer for sale at public auction on the 3rd day of February, 1973, at 1:30 P.M. on the premises located at 350 East Mound Street, Circleville, Ohio, the following described real estate:

Situated in the State of Ohio, in the County of Pickaway, and in the City of Circleville; bounded and described as follows:

Known as Lot No. 489 on the new and revised plat of the City of Circleville, Ohio, and so numbered according to the revised numbering of said lots of the City of Circleville, Ohio.

The street address of the said premises is 350 East Mound Street, Circleville, Ohio.

Said premises are appraised at $12,000.00 and must be sold for not less than two-thirds (2-3) of the appraised value. The terms of the sale are, to-wit: ten per cent of the purchase price is to be paid on the day of the sale, and the balance of the purchase price is to be paid upon the confirmation of the sale by the court and the delivery of the guardian's deed by the guardian.

was worthwhile because of the worldwide reaction it provoked.

One of the results was a retaliatory boycott of Australian ships by longshoremen on the U.S. East Coast. Nine Australian ships carrying meat and wool have been tied up. Only two American ships were affected by the Australian boycott.

Relations between the Australian and U.S. governments also were strained by the union protest as well as by criticism of President Nixon by three Cabinet ministers.

not lying when it reported last week that U.S. fighters escorting reconnaissance planes attacked anti-aircraft defenses in Hoa Binh Province south of Hanoi. The U.S. Command denied at the time that American planes had bombed pre-selected targets above the 20th parallel, but it refused to comment on reconnaissance operations and what action fighter escorts might have taken.

Thirty-nine B52s dropped about 1,100 tons of bombs in the North Vietnamese panhandle during the 24 hours ending at 8 a.m. today, U.S. sources said.

During the same period, the Command said, U.S. fighterbombers made 128 strikes in the panhandle, destroying supply trucks and setting fuel depots afire.

Hanoi claimed that two B52s were downed Monday and today below the 20th parallel, and said an unmanned reconnaissance plane was shot down north of Hanoi on Monday, but the U.S. Command said it had no plane losses to report.

In South Vietnam, nearly 50 B52s dropped more than 1,200 tons of explosives on troop concentrations in a staging area that North Vietnamese forces used for attacks in the tri-border region of the central highlands, where the frontiers of South Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia meet.

It was the second day of heavy raids in the region between Highway 14 and the border, 10 to 20 miles northwest of Kontum. This indicated a new North Vietnamese buildup, perhaps in preparation for an attack on Kontum.

Premier Pham Van Dong of North Vietnam ordered new austerity measures and heightened military alerts for his country as Hanoi again accused President Nixon of threatening to resume the bombing of Hanoi and Haiphong.

ORDINANCE NO. 193-A
BE IT ORDAINED BY THE VILLAGE COUNCIL OF SOUTH BLOOMFIELD, PICKAWAY COUNTY, STATE OF OHIO: Section 1. That there be established in the Village Treasury Accounts "Federal General Revenue Sharing Trust Fund" according to the Ohio Revised Code, Section No. 5705.12.

Section 2. That said ordinance shall take effect at once.
Passed: January 2, 1973.

The U.S. Command again refused to comment on Hanoi Radio statements that American planes were flying reconnaissance over Hanoi and Haiphong in preparation for resumption of the bombing there should the current round of Paris peace talks fail.

Report James Duerk To Join Saxbe Staff

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — James Duerk, 42, a veteran Republican public relations man, will join the staff of U.S. Sen. William B. Saxbe, R-Ohio, Jan. 17, informed sources said today.

Duerk, currently a free-lance PR man who has Republican State Headquarters as a client, refused to confirm or deny the report.

Ohio Ombudsman For Consumers Set

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John J. Gilligan today announced the hiring of Adelle Mitchell of Columbus as a $15,787-a-year ombudsman for the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency.

Gilligan said she would handle citizen complaints of environmental problems and "loosening potential bottlenecks, in EPA's regulatory functions.

2 Men Receive Governor's Award

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ernest J. Bohn of Cleveland and John A. Kruse of Piqua received the Governor's Award for Community Action this week.

Bohn received his at the dedication of the Ernest J. Bohn Tower, a senior citizens housing project in Cuyahoga County. He is serving on the state advisory board to the Division of Administration on aging.

Kruse was chosen to receive the award for his work in reporting air pollution sources in Piqua.

RESOLUTION NO. 2-A
BE IT RESOLVED BY THE VILLAGE COUNCIL OF SOUTH BLOOMFIELD, PICKAWAY COUNTY, STATE OF OHIO: SECTION 1. That the Village clerk-treasurer of South Bloomfield, establish a savings account at the Scioto Building and Loan Company, 157 W. Main St. Circleville, Ohio for all monies deposited with her for the sewerage project, by Village property owners.

SECTION 2. Said Account will then remain open until project is completed or abandoned.

standards that apply to public drinking water supplies.

The agency noted that bottled water is increasingly being used as a source of drinking water, partly because of consumer affluence and partly because of concern over reports of pollution of some public water supplies.

It said, however, that a 1971 survey of 85 bottled water samples disclosed that eight contained coliform bacteria from human waste.

If the FDA recommendations are finally adopted, the criteria that covers bacteriological, physical, chemical and radioactive limits of public water supplies will also apply to bottled water.

Bottled water has not previously been subject to federal quality standards.

New tenants in two houses owned by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Carper at the Park are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houser and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Borland. A former tenant, Mrs. Curtis Mullins moved into the Carper house on High Street.

Mr. Brad Kerns spent the weekend with his wife at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Adkins and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kerns. Brad is stationed at Ft. Knox, Kentucky and in early February will finish a two year enlistment which included six months in Vietnam.

Mr. James W. Pontious was discharged from University Hospital in Columbus on Friday where he had been a surgical patient.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Reisinger and her mother, Mrs. Grayce Francis spent the weekend in Clemson, S. C. and attended the Clemson-Maryland basketball game on Saturday. Jeff Reisinger plays for Clemson, having transferred there after two years at a junior college in Anderson, S. C.

Among those attending an Order of Eastern Star School of Instruction at the Waverly High School last Tuesday were Mrs. Frank Graves, Mrs. Leslie Dearth, Mrs. William Meadows, Mrs. Herbert Lemley, Miss Joanne Lemley, Mrs. Dwight Williams, Mrs. Larry Kerns, Mrs. Gwendolyn Rhoades, Mrs. Doris Carmean, Mrs. Donald Carroll, Mrs. Russell Wolfe, Mrs. Elizabeth Bennett all of Kingston Chapter 411 and Mrs. David Pontious of Adelphi's Evergreen Chapter.

Sunday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Carper were Mrs. Ted King of Chillicothe and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Knisley.

Mrs. Harry Sims and son, Jack visited her sister, Mrs. M. E. Proctor of Portsmouth, in the Scioto Memorial Hospital there on Sunday. Mrs. Proctor sustained a broken hip in a fall at her home. They also visited Mr. Lee Stepp who is in the same hospital with a heart condition.

Mr. and Mrs. David Raines (Karen Sue Sims) have named their baby girl born Sunday morning in Chillicothe Hospital, April Lynn. She weighed six pounds, one and one half ounces. Grandparents are Mrs. Marie Raines of Chillicothe and Mrs. Alice Sims of Kingston. Two great grandmothers are Mrs. Harry Sims, Kingston and Mrs. Frank Homer, Choctaw Lake. April Lynn's two brothers, Tim and David, are spending a few days with their grandmother Sims.

Richard Burton Gives Brigade $200,000

LONDON (AP) — Actor Richard Burton reportedly turned down a royal request to star in a charity concert to raise money for a British ambulance brigade. Instead, he sent the brigade 100,000 pounds, or $200,000.

The Daily Express said today that the request came from Princess Margaret, sister of Queen Elizabeth II and president of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, which operates on donations.

Navy Signs Greek Pact

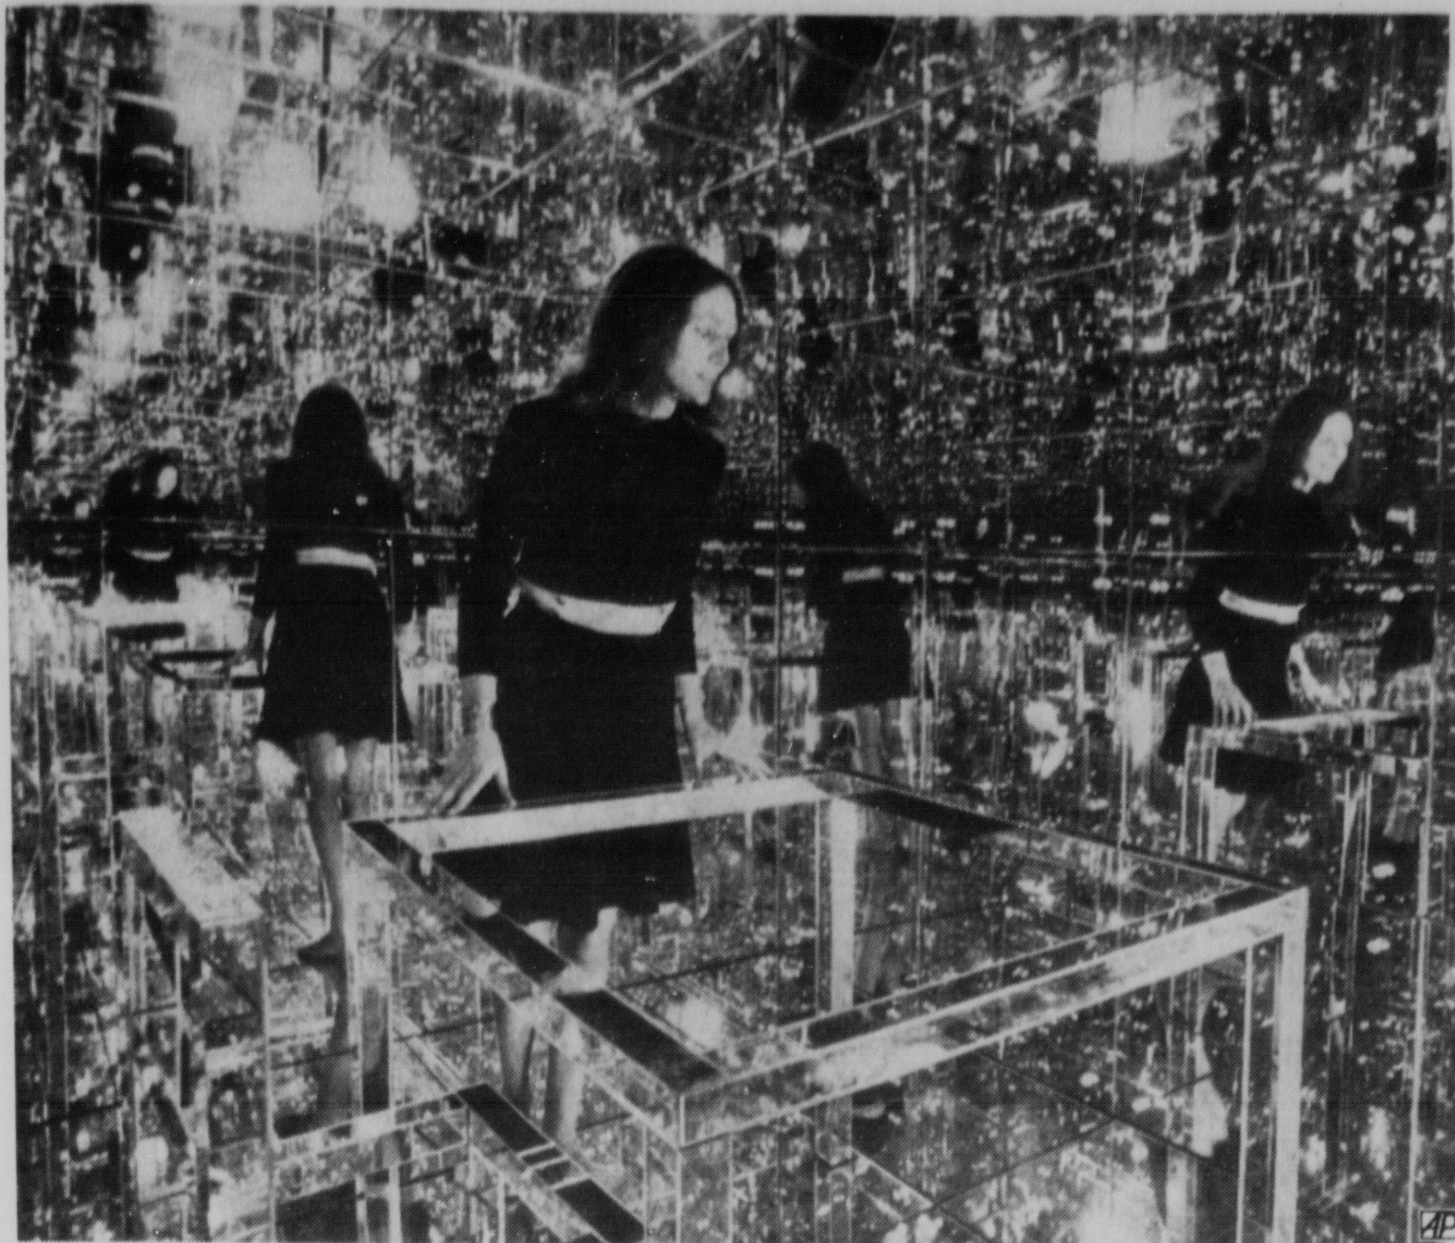

ATHENS (AP) — About 10,000 U.S. Navy personnel and their families will be making Greece their overseas home under an agreement signed here Monday despite the opposition of a congressional committee.

The agreement, good for five years, lets six U.S. destroyers and an aircraft carrier of the 6th Fleet use the port of Eleusis, 14 miles west of Athens, as their home port.

The U.S. and Greek governments agreed on the pact last year, but its signing was delayed until after the U.S. presidential elections. Sen. George McGovern, the Democratic candidate, opposed the agreement and also said he would cut off all military aid to Greece because of the military dictatorship ruling the country.

A U.S. House Foreign Affairs subcommittee last month urged that the Navy find a home port for the ships outside Greece. Attacking the Greek government as a dictatorship, it said the agreement would be "a serious disservice to American relations with the Greek people" and would harm U.S. relations with other allies.

LASS WITH GLASS—The mirror room of the Whitney Museum in New York City is a fragile place, indeed. A visitor from Ireland, Aileen Essack, wanders among the various exhibits, idly peering about the room which,

State Board Of Education Holds Meet, Reorganizes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio State Board of Education had its first meeting of the year Monday and elected John Meckstroth, a Cincinnati attorney, its new president.

William Cossler, vice president of the Youngstown Building Material and Fuel Co., was chosen vice president. Meckstroth has served on the board since 1965, when he was appointed to fill a vacancy. He then won re-election to his first full term.

Because of a new ruling creating staggered, six-year terms, the 23 members—all elected last November—had to draw lots on the number of years they would serve.

Six-year terms will be served by William Baker of Madison, Wallace Blake of Zanesville, Roy McKinley of Coshocton, David Rittenhouse of Toledo, Anthony Russo of Mayfield Heights, Cecil Sims of Piqua, Robert Williams of Xenia and Martha Wise of Elyria.

Serving four-year terms are Cossler, Thaddeus Garrett Jr. of Akron, Susan George of Canton, William Judd of Cincinnati, Mildred Madison of Cleveland, Wayne Shaffer of Bryan, Frances Voke of Columbus and Paul Walker of Bexley.

Those who drew the two-year terms are Everett Jung M.D. of Hamilton, Robert Lyons Sr. of Dayton, Meckstroth, Ward Miller of Portsmouth, Gene Norris of Berea, Thomas Russo of Maple Heights and Robert Walker of Adena.

The board adopted an interim report on special education that will be forwarded to the Ohio General Assembly. The 109th General Assembly enacted legislation mandating the board approve a final plan for education and habilitation of Ohio's handicapped children by July 1.

A new Neil A. Armstrong Joint Vocational School District was established by the board and includes the Wapakoneta City Schools in Auglaize County plus the Elida, Bath and Shawnee Local Schools in Allen County.

The board also approved two requests from school districts to issue bonds for construction of classroom facilities. The Western Local School District in Pike County was allowed a $190,000 issue and the Sheffield-Sheffield Lake City Schools in Lorain County were allowed $950,000.

Brown Proposes Several Changes In Election Laws

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Secretary of State Ted W. Brown proposed a number of changed Tuesday in Ohio's election laws, including statewide registration of voters and keeping polls open until 7:30 p.m.

He included his proposals in a letter to Sen. Stanley J. Aronoff, R-8 Cincinnati, chairman of the Senate Elections Committee. Brown said he will propose additional technical changes to the legislature later this year.

Ohio's top elections official noted that at present, 26 of Ohio's 88 counties do not have voter registration. "Certainly, the qualifications of those eligible to vote should be determined by the board of elections prior to the day of election and not be thrust, for decision, upon polling place officials on election day," Brown said.

He advocated extending voting hours from 6:30 to 7:30, he said, to accommodate people who have difficulty getting to the polls in the present 12-hour voting period.

Quarter Of British Car Sales Imported

LONDON (AP) — Imported cars represented 24 per cent of total sales in Britain in October 1972, according to latest official statistics.

Of a total of 135,456 car sales in the month, 32,580 were imported compared with 112,151 sales and 19,512 imported in the same month last year when the percentage was 17.4.

In the first 10 months of 1972, 1,412,298 cars were sold including 331,518 imported models — 23.47 per cent. Comparative 1971 levels were: 1,078,649-total 208,056 imported — 19.29 per cent.

Most popular imported car was the French Renault range with 51,586 sales or 3.65 per cent of the market.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Forced At Four A. M.

DEAR ABBY: My husband falls into bed dead tired without even kissing me goodnight. Then about 4 o'clock in the morning he wakes me up and forces himself on me without saying a word. After he has satisfied himself he turns over and goes to sleep. All the while I am lying there like a statue.

Would you call this statutory rape?

CURIOUS IN FRISCO
DEAR CURIOUS: No. It's more like STATIONARY rape.

DEAR ABBY: In one of your columns you told a girl it was all right for her to smile and wave at truck drivers. Thanks a lot! My husband is a truck driver and all he needs is good looking girls waving and smiling at him all day. He's a good-looking guy, and it doesn't take much to turn him on, and I'd just as soon he didn't take any new friends on his job. Not all truck drivers are alike, but I know my husband better than you do, so watch it, will you, Abby?

THELMA IN PASSAIC
DEAR THELMA: I'll watch it Thelma.

DEAR ABBY: Never thought I'd be writing to Dear Abby, but after reading the letter from that young girl who asked if it was okay to smile and wave at truck drivers, I had to put in my 2 cents' worth.

I've been married to a truck driver for 19 years. There's not a better husband and father. It's an honorable position and I'm proud of him. Maybe most people aren't aware of this, but 70 per cent of the food they eat and the clothes they wear are delivered by trucks.

If a lady is stranded on the highway, a truck driver will be the first to stop and help her. And speaking of being a lady, my husband stopped to help a couple of so-called "ladies," and they robbed him of all his money.

So tell that gal to keep smiling. I hope she smiles at my truck driver someday, for it's a lonely job and he can use a smile along the way.

KANSAS WIFE
DEAR ABBY: I am a widow, 67, living alone in a one-bedroom apartment. The only living relative I have is a sister. Gertrude is 73, married and very well-to-do. She has been fighting with her husband, Sam who is 75, for as long as I can remember.

For the past year, Gertrude has been coming here in a taxi at all hours of the night asking if she can sleep in the other twin bed because she and Sam had another fight. Naturally, I let her stay. Sometimes she spends two nights with me until she's sure Sam has colled off.

Now Sam calls accusing me of "breaking up his home." He says if I didn't let his wife come here to sleep she would stay home where she belongs. The old fool should know that if I didn't let her sleep here she could go to a hotel. She has plenty of money. Sam says if I let Gertrude sleep here

U.S. Will Resume Bombing If Necessary, Saxbe Told

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Sen. William Saxbe says a member of the Nixon Administration told him resumption of full-scale bombing over North Vietnam was one of the alternatives if the Paris peace talks failed.

William M. Hoiles, an aide to the Republican senator from Ohio, said

Tuesday that Saxbe obtained the information at a Monday luncheon with Gen. Alexander Haig, a former aide to Vietnam negotiator Henry Kissinger.

Hoiles, reached by telephone in Washington, quoted Saxbe as saying that renewed bombing "was one of the alternatives mentioned."

Saxbe could not be reached for comment, but Hoiles said the senator had told him an earlier, published report on his conversation with Gen. Haig was accurate except that the bombing resumption was only one of several alternatives mentioned.

Saxbe quoted Haig as saying the 12 days of saturation bombing between Dec. 18 and Dec. 30 would help shorten

the war by damaging Hanoi's will and ability to fight.

But Saxbe, who was critical of the December bombing raids, said he did not agree with Haig's assessment of the effectiveness of the raids. Saxbe charged that the Administration's position was wrong because "there are no real strategic targets left in North Vietnam, and intensive bombing could not possibly serve any other purpose than to punish the North."

Saxbe was quoted as saying such "punitive bombing will go down as a blot in history like Rotterdam and Dresden," two cities without military value which were firebombing targets during World War II.

U.S. Will Resume Bombing If Necessary, Saxbe Told

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Sen. William Saxbe says a member of the Nixon Administration told him resumption of full-scale bombing over North Vietnam was one of the alternatives if the Paris peace talks failed.

William M. Hoiles, an aide to the Republican senator from Ohio, said

Tuesday that Saxbe obtained the information at a Monday luncheon with Gen. Alexander Haig, a former aide to Vietnam negotiator Henry Kissinger.

Hoiles, reached by telephone in Washington, quoted Saxbe as saying that renewed bombing "was one of the alternatives mentioned."

Saxbe could not be reached for comment, but Hoiles said the senator had told him an earlier, published report on his conversation with Gen. Haig was accurate except that the bombing resumption was only one of several alternatives mentioned.

Saxbe quoted Haig as saying the 12 days of saturation bombing between Dec. 18 and Dec. 30 would help shorten

the war by damaging Hanoi's will and ability to fight.

But Saxbe, who was critical of the December bombing raids, said he did not agree with Haig's assessment of the effectiveness of the raids. Saxbe charged that the Administration's position was wrong because "there are no real strategic targets left in North Vietnam, and intensive bombing could not possibly serve any other purpose than to punish the North."

Saxbe was quoted as saying such "punitive bombing will go down as a blot in history like Rotterdam and Dresden," two cities without military value which were firebombing targets during World War II.

Ohio Sets Aggressive Offer To Get Federal Tech Center

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — An Ohio official said the state will have to make an "aggressive and innovative" offer to attract one of nine technological centers being developed by the National Science Foundation to solve social problems.

Dr. Seymour Goldstone, deputy director in the Ohio Department of Economic and Community Development, said his office has begun preliminary discussions to obtain one of the $2 million centers announced recently by the foundation in Washington.

Goldstone said the aim of the centers is to remove "institutional barriers of working together."

The center's role, he said, would be to coordinate technical capabilities of research groups, universities and businesses with local and state governments.

As an example, he said, the center could "look at the problems of a city and determine to what extent they are the result of a lack of resources or a lack of expertise." With an exhaustive study of the situation, he said, the center could provide technological answers to city problems.

"We could not say that the technological center would clean up Lake Erie, because that will take millions of dollars," Goldstone said.

"But it might come up with a better way to fight pollution."

He said the state's proposal "has to be thought out very carefully," if Ohio is to compete successfully with other states.

Marquette Wins Again, Despite Embry TV, Braves In Key Tilt

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Al McGuire would prefer that his Marquette basketball team pay attention to him rather than Wayne Embry. He's really sensitive about it, fellows.

Of course you couldn't really blame the Warriors' coach for feeling slightly neglected. Embry, the general manager of the pro Milwaukee Bucks, comes to Marquette home games to ogle prospective college talent.

And while Embry looks over McGuire's bunch, the kids make goo-goo eyes back.

"I don't like Embry sitting that close because I think my players start using a little peripheral vision," said

McGuire after his fourth-ranked team turned back Chicago-Loyola 82-77 for its 81st straight home victory Tuesday night.

Marquette was only one of two Top Ten teams in action Tuesday night. Second-ranked Maryland crushed Virginia 93-74 in the other match.

Elsewhere, No. 16 Indiana drubbed Ohio 80-68; Tulsa beat Arkansas 85-81; Denver stymied Wyoming 63-51; Florida Southern trimmed Connecticut 93-85; Louisiana Tech defeated Arkansas State 80-68; Ohio smothered Marietta 87-31; LaSalle downed Rider 78-67; St. Joseph's, Pa., stopped American University 78-55; McNeese State whipped Texas-Arlington 89-76; Creighton overpowered Augustana 82-

63; Hawaii hammered Abilene Christian 79-63; Northern Michigan coasted past Calvin 80-53 and Montana State slammed California-Irvine 75-59.

With its triumph, undefeated Marquette won No. 11 this year. But like most of the other victories, it didn't come easy. Five of the Warrior contests have been decided by five points or less.

The visitors forced several turnovers as Marquette tried to freeze the ball in the final four minutes and cut the margin to 78-75 on Paul Cohen's tip-in with 39 seconds left.

But Allie McGuire, the coach's son, tossed in a pair of free throws with 14 seconds remaining and Marcus Washington later delivered two more to nail it down.

"I think we came back a little tonight, there were signs of it," said Coach McGuire.

The reference was clear: McGuire has long chided his charges for showing off individual talents, rather than playing as a unit, because of Embry's presence.

Len Elmore scored 19 points and grabbed 17 rebounds to lead Maryland to its 14th straight victory, dating back to last season. The Terps roared to a 38-22 halftime lead and Virginia was unable to get closer than 10 points the rest of the way.

Maryland held high-scoring Barry Parkhill to two points — the lowest figure of his career. Wally Walker led the Cavaliers with 23 points.

Hoosiers Bomb Redskins, 80-68

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
"We can't give up 50 points in the first half and win," Miami of Ohio basketball Coach Darrell Hedric said after his Redskins were an 80-68 victim of Indiana Tuesday night.

Indiana jumped off to an early lead and pulled up a 50-39 lead by halftime. Miami played the 16th-ranked Hoosiers on nearly even terms after intermission, but couldn't make up the difference.

Actually, Indiana claimed the triumph at the free throw line. Both teams had 30 field goals, but the Hoosiers converted 20 of 28 charity tosses to just 8 of 18 for Miami.

Steve Fields led Miami, now 8-3, with 17 points. Teammate Rich Hampton added 12.

In other Ohio college basketball action Tuesday night, Ohio University, who meets Miami in a Mid-American Conference game Saturday, trounced nonleague foe Marietta 87-31.

The Bobcats, now 8-4, handed the Pioneers their ninth loss in 11 starts by piling up a 36-19 advantage by halftime and stretching the margin while holding Marietta scoreless for the first seven minutes of the second period.

Scott Love paced Ohio with 17 points. Arthur Clark topped Marietta shooters with 8 points.

Ferber.

In other OC games, Ohio Wesleyan upset Denison 71-68 as Dan Penrod pumped in 26 points, and Heidelberg beat Baldwin-Wallace 70-56 to even both teams' league marks at 2-2.

Undefeated Hiram thrashed

Allegheny, Pa., 84-63 in a President Athletics Conference game for its eighth win of the season and third in league play.

Malone, paced by junior center Phil Hodge with 27 points, defeated Kenyon 81-73.

CHS Reserve Matmen Cop Tri Meet

Circleville's reserve wrestling squad captured top honors in a triangular meet with Teays Valley and Groveport Tuesday on the Cruisers' mats.

The Tigers tallied 62 points for first place, Groveport was second with 60 and Teays Valley had 35. Circleville and Groveport tied in the dual event with 29 points apiece while the Tigers downed Teays Valley 33-27.

It was a great effort for the Tiger grapplers as they lost 24 points to both Teays Valley and Groveport when they had to forfeit matches in the 8-pound, 105-pound, 132-pound and 175-pound classes.

Double winners for Circleville were: Barry Marshall, 112-pound; Tom Hamilton, 126; Roger Davis, 135; Bob Brandon, 145; Rick Sampsill, 155; Bob Featherolf, 167; Tim Wilkinson, 185. Dave LeMay came up with a win and tie in the 119-pound class. The Tigers had six pins in the meet.

Bulls Rout 76ers, 126-110; Chet Walker Tops 15,000

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The plight of the Philadelphia 76ers, according to Chet Walker, is just more proof that nice guys finish last.

Walker, an ex-76er who now plies his trade in Chicago, pumped in 20 points in the Bulls' 126-110 rout of hapless Philadelphia Tuesday night, becoming the 18th player in National Basketball Association history to score 15,000 points.

"After I got the basket to pass the 15,000-point mark," Walker said, "I looked over sadly at the press table and saw Philadelphia owner Irv Kosloff. I guess he tried to smile."

"He's just too nice a guy. He tries to be so fair with everybody, but he probably has a tendency to be influenced by persons not equipped to make the right decisions. Philadelphia is in a sad way, and no matter what Mr. Kosloff tries, it doesn't succeed."

The loss gave the 76ers a horrid 4-39 record and left them 30 games behind Atlantic Division leading Boston. The Bulls, meanwhile, pulled within two games of pace-setting Milwaukee in the Midwest Division.

Elsewhere, the New York Knicks nipped the Kansas City-Omaha Kings 166-115 in overtime, the Baltimore Bullets defeated the Portland Trail Blazers 105-93, the Atlanta Hawks downed the Houston Rockets 120-114, the Golden State Warriors whipped the Detroit Pistons 105-98 and the Buffalo

Braves beat the Cleveland Cavaliers 106-102.

Chicago's Garfield Heard and Philly's Fred Carter shared scoring honors with 27 points. Bob Love matched Walker's 20 for the Bulls, including 16 in the third period when they broke it open.

New York's Dave DeBusschere, named as an All-Star Game starter for the first time earlier in the day, celebrated by hitting a layup with 10 seconds left in overtime to nudge the Knicks past the Kings despite a career high 52 points by KC-Omaha's Nate Archibald, the NBA's scoring leader.

Elvin Hayes scored 23 points and grabbed 22 rebounds to lead Baltimore past Portland, enabling the Bullets to remain 1½ games in front of Atlanta in the Central Division.

Colonels Turn Back Squires, 113-106

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Kentucky Colonel guard Louie Dampier has said that Dan Issel has a great touch and that his strength is his offense.

Issel proved that Tuesday night with an awesome display of shooting and rebounding to lead the Colonels to a 113-106 victory over the Virginia Squires in an American Basketball Association game.

Issel, hitting consistently with his medium-range jump shot and muscling his 240-pound frame under the boards, scored 44 points and grabbed 18 rebounds. His efforts helped Kentucky break open a tight game in the fourth quarter.

In other ABA games, Carolina

thumped the New York Nets 110-97, Utah rallied to beat Memphis 115-111 and San Diego defeated Denver 113-109.

Coach Joe Mullaney said of Issel's performance, "Dan did a fine job, but it really wasn't because we overemphasized him."

Issel and Virginia high scorer Julius Erving traded baskets throughout the game until Issel took control late in the third quarter.

Erving finished with 34 points, four above his league-leading average, and 17 rebounds.

Steve Jones poured in 30 points to lead the Carolina Cougars to a 110-97 trouncing of the New York Nets. Carolina's victory, its 11th straight, is the league's longest winning streak this season.

Bart Starr To Sever Grid Ties

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Bart Starr, who quarterbacked the Green Bay Packers to unparalleled National Football League success in 16 brilliant playing seasons, is passing up at least one attractive coaching offer in favor of a budding business career.

Starr, who retired as a player last July but stayed on as coach of Green Bay's young quarterbacks and was credited with a major role in the club's resurgence, announced his decision to leave the game at a news conference Tuesday, his 39th birthday.

"It's just that I have a desire to do other things," said Starr, who has an automobile dealership with two outlets in Birmingham, Ala., and a motel in Auburn, Ala.

TV Juniors Drop Contests To Aces

Teays Valley's seventh and eighth grade cagers both lost to Amanda-Clearcreek Tuesday in a pair of contests played on the Vikings' floor.

The Viking seventh graders trailed 9-4 at the first period buzzer, were behind 13-6 at halftime, on the short end of a 21-14 count at the conclusion of the third canto and went down 29-23 at the final whistle.

Rick Queen led the Vikings with eight points, Ron Little had seven while Dwane Hettinger, Miles Glover, John Woodruff and Duane Keller each tallied two. Foster had 12 for the Aces.

The eighth grade Vikings fell to the Aces 31-29 in a real squeaker. Teays Valley was on top 12-8 at the end of the first quarter, found the score tied, 18-18, at halftime and held the short end of a 27-23 count at the third period buzzer.

Charles Morrison had 10 points for the Vikings, Gregg Cline nine, Tim Tosca six while Dewey Chaffin and Jeff Voss each added two. Hartley had 12 and Marshall 11 for Amanda-Clearcreek.

Former Indy Driver To Speak At CHS

The Champion Highway Safety Program which features nationally known race drivers will be presented at Circleville High School 10 a.m. Jan. 26 by Johnny Boyd, 12-time competitor in the famed Indianapolis 500-mile race.

Arrangements for Boyd's appearance here were made by Clifton Auto Parts, 116 E. High St.

Now in its 18th year, the program has been presented to over 14 million teenagers throughout the United States in over 7,000 high schools. It has brought numerous awards to its national sponsor, Champion Spark Plug Company. Among these are three National Safety Council Public Service awards and the Alfred P. Sloan Jr. award for outstanding service to highway safety. Other citations have come from United States Auto Club, Continental Casualty Co. and the Public Relations Society of America.

Boyd, of Fresno, Calif., is one of the most talented and popular drivers in the history of the sport. He has finished in the top ten four times and in 1958 placed third. In 1957 he was leading the late stages of the race when he was forced to stop for an unscheduled tire change. Though this stop deprived him of racing's highest prize, it was done in the interest of safety, which is typical of veteran speedway drivers. Boyd is a member of the famed 100-mile-an-hour club, an exclusive organization of men who have completed the 500 miles at Indianapolis.

Jones Plans To Fight Waivers

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Bucks asked waivers Tuesday on suspended guard Wali Jones, whose attorney pledged an appeal to National Basketball Association Commissioner Walter Kennedy and said there was a "possibility of litigation."

Philadelphia attorney Richard Phillips insisted Jones, 30, is entitled to remain with the Bucks at least through this season and to his salary for the duration of his contract, which has 2½ years to run at a reported $90,000 to $100,000 a year.

"My interpretation is that they have the obligation to keep him at least for two full years of the four, and he has a right to be paid for four years," said Phillips, who negotiated the contract when Jones was traded to Milwaukee by Philadelphia in December.

UC Faces Call To Drop Football

CINCINNATI (AP) — The University of Cincinnati administration had no immediate comment after a faculty group, claiming membership of nearly a third of the teaching staff, called on the school to abandon football.

The resolution was announced by Lowell Leake, president of the local chapter of the American Association of University Professors. He claimed membership of 400 of the staff, although the vote was only 77-14.

Leake, an opponent of football at Cincinnati, was accused earlier by athletic officials of recruiting players for his alma mater, Wisconsin. Leake, a math instructor, did not deny the accusation.

But he said his opposition to the football program was financial. Leake told the AAUP that the program was losing $500,000 annually and the current school deficit for all departments was about $1.5 million.

"I think we're in circumstances beyond our control," said Leake. "It's really not anybody's fault. We have a stadium that's antiquated and too small, and we're in a situation where we're competing with the Bengals and with a limited number of real fans."

The Cincinnati Bengals of the National Football League played in the administration. "But, he said, he thought the tally would "communicate how a very important segment of the faculty feels."

Leake admitted the vote had "no binding effect on this university's Administration. "But, he said, he thought the tally would "communicate how a very important segment of the faculty feels."

Pro Bowl Tickets Moving Slowly

DALLAS (AP) — Only some 30,000 seats have been sold for the Pro Bowl Jan. 21 in Texas Stadium pitting members of the National Football Conference and American Football Conference All-Stars.

Texas Stadium seats 65,000 fans.

Marquette Wins Again, Despite Embry TV, Braves In Key Tilt

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Al McGuire would prefer that his Marquette basketball team pay attention to him rather than Wayne Embry. He's really sensitive about it, fellows.

Of course you couldn't really blame the Warriors' coach for feeling slightly neglected. Embry, the general manager of the pro Milwaukee Bucks, comes to Marquette home games to ogle prospective college talent.

And while Embry looks over McGuire's bunch, the kids make goo-goo eyes back.
"I don't like Embry sitting that close because I think my players start using a little peripheral vision," said

McGuire after his fourth-ranked team turned back Chicago-Loyola 82-77 for its 81st straight home victory Tuesday night.

Marquette was only one of two Top Ten teams in action Tuesday night. Second-ranked Maryland crushed Virginia 93-74 in the other match.

Elsewhere, No. 16 Indiana drubbed Ohio 80-68; Tulsa beat Arkansas 85-81; Denver stymied Wyoming 63-51; Florida Southern trimmed Connecticut 93-85; Louisiana Tech defeated Arkansas State 80-68; Ohio smothered Marietta 87-31; LaSalle downed Rider 78-67; St. Joseph's, Pa., stopped American University 78-55; McNeese State whipped Texas-Arlington 89-76; Creighton overpowered Augustana 82-

63; Hawaii hammered Abilene Christian 79-63; Northern Michigan coasted past Calvin 80-53 and Montana State slammed California-Irvine 75-59.

With its triumph, undefeated Marquette won No. 11 this year. But like most of the other victories, it didn't come easy. Five of the Warrior contests have been decided by five points or less.

The visitors forced several turnovers as Marquette tried to freeze the ball in the final four minutes and cut the margin to 78-75 on Paul Cohen's tip-in with 39 seconds left.

But Allie McGuire, the coach's son, tossed in a pair of free throws with 14 seconds remaining and Marcus Washington later delivered two more to nail it down.

"I think we came back a little tonight, there were signs of it," said Coach McGuire.

The reference was clear: McGuire has long chided his charges for showing off individual talents, rather than playing as a unit, because of Embry's presence.

Len Elmore scored 19 points and grabbed 17 rebounds to lead Maryland to its 14th straight victory, dating back to last season. The Terps roared to a 38-22 halftime lead and Virginia was unable to get closer than 10 points the rest of the way.

Maryland held high-scoring Barry Parkhill to two points — the lowest figure of his career. Wally Walker led the Cavaliers with 23 points.

Teays Valley and Westfall will see double cage action this week while the Braves of Logan Elm will be idle Friday as they await the arrival of the Vikings Saturday night in a top county battle.

The Vikings have their work cut out for them this week as they travel to West Jefferson in a Metropolitan League encounter Friday night and tangle with the rampaging Logan Elm Braves on Saturday. Teays Valley is perched on top of the heap in the Metro League and will be out for their second win over West Jeff this season. The Blue and Gold had a 6-1 mark in league play and holds a season record of 6-4.

"We have to concentrate on Friday Night's clash with West Jeff as this is a league game and vital to us in our race for the title," Teays Valley Coach Bob Hoover commented. "But Saturday night is important to us as we will be out to avenge our opening loss to Logan Elm."

The Vikings suffered an 88-80 setback to the Braves in their opener and would like nothing better than to even the score Saturday night at the Spangler Memorial gym.

Coach Hoover will probably go with Craig Pontius and Terry Lambert at the guards, Jim Logsdon at center with Jeff Anderson and Jerry Sabine working up front. Terry Collins and Jay Brinker give the Vikings bench strength and will probably see plenty of action in the contest.

The Viking offense is geared around the fine playmaking and outside shooting of Pontius with the two big men, Logsdon and Anderson, working inside and pounding the boards.

Coach Dave Little's Logan Elm squad will be seeking its 11th win of the season against the big Viking as the Braves are sporting a 10-1 mark for the year and share the top spot in the Scioto Valley conference with East Clinton. Both teams have 3-0 records in league play. Logan Elm's only loss came at Huntington.

What has to be the top county battle of the year promises plenty of action and Spangler gym should be packed to capacity for the confrontation.

The Braves will counter the Vikings with the torrid outside shooting of Tom Sykes, Tim Justice and Steve Sargent with Stu Jones working inside and battling the Vikings big men on the boards. Coach Little also has good bench and the Braves are noted for their sticky defensive play.

Westfall is still looking for its first win of the season and will be going all out against Piketon Friday night on the Mustangs' court. Both teams are winless in SVC play and will battle to get out of the cellar.

Saturday night the Vikings will travel to Greenfield to meet the Tigers in a non league encounter.

Hoosiers Bomb Redskins, 80-68

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"We can't give up 50 points in the first half and win," Miami of Ohio basketball Coach Darrell Hedric said after his Redskins were an 80-68 victim of Indiana Tuesday night.

Indiana jumped off to an early lead and pulled up a 50-39 lead by halftime. Miami played the 16th-ranked Hoosiers on nearly even terms after intermission, but couldn't make up the difference.

Actually, Indiana claimed the triumph at the free throw line. Both teams had 30 field goals, but the Hoosiers converted 20 of 28 charity tosses to just 8 of 18 for Miami.

Sophomores Steve Green and John Laskowski paced the Hoosiers with 20 and 19 points, respectively. Freshman guard Quinn Buckner, netted 13 points, led both teams in assists with five and had a game-high 13 rebounds.

"He rebounded well, moved the ball well, stole passes, knocked passes down and played good defense," said Indiana Coach Bob Knight of Buckner's performance.

Colonels Turn Back Squires, 113-106

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Kentucky Colonel guard Louie Dampier has said that Dan Issel has a great touch and that his strength is his offense.

Issel proved that Tuesday night with an awesome display of shooting and rebounding to lead the Colonels to a 113-106 victory over the Virginia Squires in an American Basketball Association game.

Issel, hitting consistently with his medium-range jump shot and muscling his 240-pound frame under the boards, scored 44 points and grabbed 18 rebounds. His efforts helped Kentucky break open a tight game in the fourth quarter.

In other ABA games, Carolina

thumped the New York Nets 110-97, Utah rallied to beat Memphis 115-111 and San Diego defeated Denver 113-109.

Coach Joe Mullaney said of Issel's performance, "Dan did a fine job, but it really wasn't because we overemphasized him."

Issel and Virginia high scorer Julius Erving traded baskets throughout the game until Issel took control late in the third quarter.

Erving finished with 34 points, four above his league-leading average, and 17 rebounds.

Steve Jones poured in 30 points to lead the Carolina Cougars to a 110-97 trouncing of the New York Nets. Carolina's victory, its 11th straight, is the league's longest winning streak this season.

The Utah Stars, with their regular guards out of the starting line-up, scored 14 straight points in the final quarter to come from behind and defeat Memphis.

Two free throws by Larry Miller with 11 seconds left and two more by Simmie Hill at the buzzer helped the San Diego Conquistadors turn back the Denver Rockets. Charlie Williams and Gene Moore had 21 and 20 points, respectively, for the Qs, who had dropped 21 of their previous 25 starts.

CHS Reserve Matmen Cop Tri Meet

Circleville's reserve wrestling squad captured top honors in a triangular meet with Teays Valley and Groveport Tuesday on the Cruisers' mats.

The Tigers tallied 62 points for first place, Groveport was second with 60 and Teays Valley had 35. Circleville and Groveport tied in the dual event with 29 points apiece while the Tigers downed Teays Valley 33-27.

It was a great effort for the Tiger grapplers as they lost 24 points to both Teays Valley and Groveport when they had to forfeit matches in the 8-pound, 105-pound, 132-pound and 175-pound classes.

Double winners for Circleville were: Barry Marshall, 112-pound; Tom Hamilton, 126; Roger Davis, 135; Bob Brandon, 145; Rick Sampill, 155; Bob Featherolf, 167; Tim Wilkinson, 185. Dave LeMay came up with a win and tie in the 119-pound class. The Tigers had six pins in the meet.

Bart Starr To Sever Grid Ties

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Bart Starr, who quarterbacked the Green Bay Packers to unparalleled National Football League success in 16 brilliant playing seasons, is passing up at least one attractive coaching offer in favor of a budding business career.

Starr, who retired as a player last July but stayed on as coach of Green Bay's young quarterbacks and was credited with a major role in the club's resurgence, announced his decision to leave the game at a news conference Tuesday, his 39th birthday.

"It's just that I have a desire to do other things," said Starr, who has an automobile dealership with two outlets in Birmingham, Ala., and a motel in Auburn, Ala.

"It was a tough decision and I know I'm going to miss football," he said. "But I'm very excited about our business ventures. I'm excited with the challenge of doing something else."

Starr admitted receiving several coaching offers and said one, from an unnamed NFL club, was "particularly exciting."

"It would have given me a chance to associate with one of the truly great organizations in this league and to work with a sensational owner," he said.

"I did not turn this offer down," he said. "I simply decided to pursue a career in the business world rather than football."

Tiger Freshmen Down Logan Elm
Circleville's freshmen cagers downed Logan Elm, 44-30, Tuesday in a game held at the Spangler Memorial gym.
The Tigers led 11-2 at the end of the first quarter, were on top 25-10 at the half and held a 35-20 at the conclusion of the third period.
Mike McCoy paced Circleville with 11 points, Brent Mancini had 10, George Moore eight, Biff Bumgarner seven while Jeff Fraser and Dan Marshall each tallied four.
Rawlins was tops for the Braves with 15 markers, Reichelderfer and Sargent had six apiece and Allen added three.
Circleville is now 3-3 for the season and will host Greenfield 4:30 p.m. Thursday.

Bulls Rout 76ers, 126-110; Chet Walker Tops 15,000

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The plight of the Philadelphia 76ers, according to Chet Walker, is just more proof that nice guys finish last.

Walker, an ex-76er who now plies his trade in Chicago, pumped in 20 points in the Bulls' 126-110 rout of hapless Philadelphia Tuesday night, becoming the 18th player in National Basketball Association history to score 15,000 points.

"After I got the basket to pass the 15,000-point mark," Walker said, "I looked over sadly at the press table and saw Philadelphia owner Irv Kosloff. I guess he tried to smile."

"He's just too nice a guy. He tries to be so fair with everybody, but he probably has a tendency to be influenced by persons not equipped to make the right decisions. Philadelphia is in a sad way, and no matter what Mr. Kosloff tries, it doesn't succeed."

The loss gave the 76ers a horrid 4-39 record and left them 30 games behind Atlantic Division leading Boston. The Bulls, meanwhile, pulled within two games of pace-setting Milwaukee in the Midwest Division.

Elsewhere, the New York Knicks nipped the Kansas City-Omaha Kings 166-115 in overtime, the Baltimore Bullets defeated the Portland Trail Blazers 105-93, the Atlanta Hawks downed the Houston Rockets 120-114, the Golden State Warriors whipped the Detroit Pistons 105-98 and the Buffalo

Former Indy Driver To Speak At CHS Y Scores

The Champion Highway Safety Program which features nationally known race drivers will be presented at Circleville High School 10 a.m. Jan. 26 by Johnny Boyd, 12-time competitor in the famed Indianapolis 500-mile race.

Arrangements for Boyd's appearance here were made by Clifton Auto Parts, 116 E. High St.

Now in its 18th year, the program has been presented to over 14 million teenagers throughout the United States in over 7,000 high schools. It has brought numerous awards to its national sponsor, Champion Spark Plug Company. Among these are three National Safety Council Public Service awards and the Alfred P. Sloan Jr. award for outstanding service to highway safety. Other citations have come from United States Auto Club, Continental Casualty Co. and the Public Relations Society of America.

Boyd, of Fresno, Calif., is one of the most talented and popular drivers in the history of the sport. He has finished in the top ten four times and in 1958 placed third. In 1957 he was leading the late stages of the race when he was forced to stop for an unscheduled tire change. Though this stop deprived him of racing's highest prize, it was done in the interest of safety, which is typical of veteran speedway drivers. Boyd is a member of the famed 100-mile-an-hour club, an exclusive organization of men who have completed the 500 miles at Indianapolis.

Braves beat the Cleveland Cavaliers 106-102.

Chicago's Garfield Heard and Philly's Fred Carter shared scoring honors with 27 points. Bob Love matched Walker's 20 for the Bulls, including 16 in the third period when they broke it open.

New York's Dave DeBusschere, named as an All-Star Game starter for the first time earlier in the day, celebrated by hitting a layup with 10 seconds left in overtime to nudge the Knicks past the Kings despite a career high 52 points by KC-Omaha's Nate Archibald, the NBA's scoring leader.

Elvin Hayes scored 23 points and grabbed 22 rebounds to lead Baltimore past Portland, enabling the Bullets to remain 1½ games in front of Atlanta in the Central Division.

Phillies Get Opening Shot In Winter Baseball Draft

NEW YORK (AP) — Philadelphia's tailend Phillies had the first choice today in baseball's annual winter draft of free agent prospects with a couple of infielders, Alan Bannister of Arizona State and Michigan State's Brad Van Pelt, an All-American football player, expected to be among the first players chosen.

The 24 major league teams were linked to Commissioner Bowie Kuhn's midtown offices via conference telephone hookup for the winter draft which has produced some first-rate talent in past years.

The Phillies earned first choice in the regular phase by the slim margin of a single percentage point. That's how far Philadelphia finished behind San Diego in the composite National League standings. The draft's regular phase order of selection is determined by inverse order of the previous season's standings with the leagues alternating on the first choice.

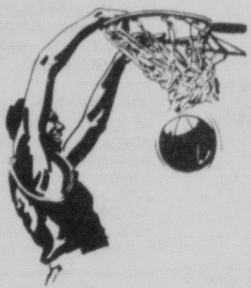

Philadelphia also owned the opening choice in the secondary phase of the draft, a privilege determined by drawing. The Texas Rangers chose second in both phases.

Bannister and Van Pelt are both former No. 1 selections of the California Angels. Both rejected large bonus offers to continue playing collegiate ball. Now Bannister has left Arizona State and Van Pelt is a senior at Michigan State and both are expected to be ready for the move to professional ball. Both were likely to be gone, however, by the time the Angels, No. 8 in the draft roll call, had their chance to choose.

The winter draft, always considerably smaller than its summer counterpart, has produced a host of familiar big league names in the seven years it has been in operation. Included among them are Tom Seaver, Carlton Fisk, Ken Singleton, Dave LaRoche, Garry Maddox, Chris Speier, Chris Chambliss, Ross Grimsley and Bert Blyleven.

Between 200 and 300 players were expected to be chosen by the major league teams and their minor league affiliates. If a player does not sign with the team drafting him in a specified period of time, he becomes a free agent again, returning to the pool of draft eligibles. That's what happened to California with Bannister and Van Pelt.

Funeral For Lake

BABYLON, N.Y. (AP) — Mourning what is claimed will be the fate of many lakes and streams in Suffolk County, the Committee for Water Preservation held a mock funeral service for Argyle Lake.

The committee said the funeral was held to call attention to the "no-recharge" operation of the Southwest Sewer District, now being built. The effluent from the treatment plant will be pumped to the ocean instead of recharged to the ground. The "no recharge," it is claimed, will lower the ground water table enough to dry up the lakes and streams of the area.

Phillies Get Opening Shot In Winter Baseball Draft

NEW YORK (AP) — Philadelphia's tailend Phillies had the first choice today in baseball's annual winter draft of free agent prospects with a couple of infielders, Alan Bannister of Arizona State and Michigan State's Brad Van Pelt, an All-American football player, expected to be among the first players chosen.

The 24 major league teams were linked to Commissioner Bowie Kuhn's midtown offices via conference telephone hookup for the winter draft which has produced some first-rate talent in past years.

The Phillies earned first choice in the regular phase by the slim margin of a single percentage point. That's how far Philadelphia finished behind San Diego in the composite National League standings. The draft's regular phase order of selection is determined by inverse order of the previous season's standings with the leagues alternating on the first choice.

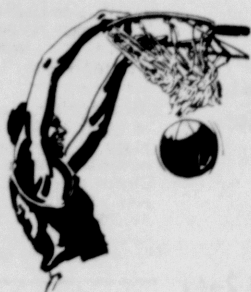

Philadelphia also owned the opening choice in the secondary phase of the draft, a privilege determined by drawing. The Texas Rangers chose second in both phases.

Bannister and Van Pelt are both former No. 1 selections of the California Angels. Both rejected large bonus offers to continue playing collegiate ball. Now Bannister has left Arizona State and Van Pelt is a senior at Michigan State and both are expected to be ready for the move to professional ball. Both were likely to be gone, however, by the time the Angels, No. 8 in the draft roll call, had their chance to choose.

The winter draft, always considerably smaller than its summer counterpart, has produced a host of familiar big league names in the seven years it has been in operation. Included among them are Tom Seaver, Carlton Fisk, Ken Singleton, Dave LaRoche, Garry Maddox, Chris Speier, Chris Chambliss, Ross Grimsley and Bert Blyleven.

Between 200 and 300 players were expected to be chosen by the major league teams and their minor league affiliates. If a player does not sign with the team drafting him in a specified period of time, he becomes a free agent again, returning to the pool of draft eligibles. That's what happened to California with Bannister and Van Pelt.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The morning may bring some surprising upsets but don't be alarmed by them for you are now being given a chance to put practical and monetary affairs in order. You are able to advance in the future with the assistance of an experienced higher-up. Take advantage of opportunities.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Study your business affairs well and see how you can improve them so that you can become more prosperous. If you have any doubts about finances, get advice from a business expert.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) A good pal has the right ideas how to make you look more charming, so listen and follow through. Social life can add much to your happiness. Arrive on time for an important appointment.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Analyze the progress you have made in the past year toward your most cherished goals and figure out a way to get ahead faster this year. Consult an expert. Relax at favorite hobby tonight.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Listen to what a loyal friend has to suggest for your advancement and follow through with ideas given you. Repay a social debt and improve your position with one who really counts.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Ideal day for handling civic and other public duties that add to your present reputation. Try not to be so naive with the opposite sex. Do something about that fine voice you possess.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Listen to a financial expert for ideas that could be the seed of your own success in the future. Make long-range plans for bettering your position in life. Avoid extravagance tonight.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Study the debits and credits of your financial situation and come up with a fine solution for the future. A more devoted attitude toward mate is wise, especially in the evening. Be noised SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) An associate could be irate in the morning but you can do much to restore calm in this person. Handle a civic work you enjoy and get approval of bigwigs. Evening is fine for the social.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Plan how to get routine tasks done more cleverly and derive more benefits from them. Do whatever will make you feel and look more dynamic. Avoid stumbling blocks in your way to progress.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Engage in the pleasure you like with the persons you admire. You can put your finest talents across with the right persons. Gain the backing you need for projects that are important to you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You may have problems at home that may seem impossible to handle, but objective thinking will solve them quickly. Look into practical outlets that can produce greater income in the future.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Study how to become more proficient in your work so that you can command a better income in the future. Make and keep appointments with key persons. Take health treatments you may need.

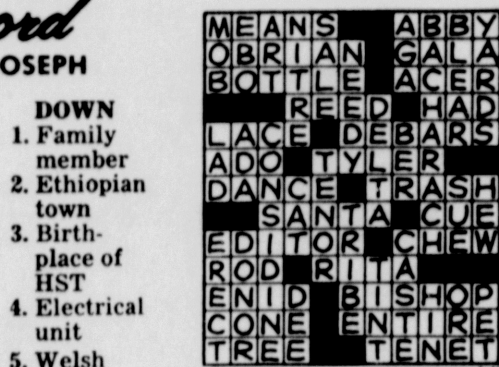

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those charming young people who knows the power of physical beauty and is likely to rely too much on this if you don't teach to work and earn what is desired, then this chart becomes a successful one. Public work is especially good here, be it civic, cultural or in the field of entertainment. Give good ethical training early in life.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Views On TV And Radio

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Paar, the shy, retiring lord of the late hour, beat his old NBC "Tonight" show in the ratings here, but lost in Los Angeles during his debut on the ABC Television network. The Angelinos apparently preferred Johnny Carson by a wide margin Monday night, despite the big publicity buildup ABC gave Paar's new one-week-a-month "Tone" show.

However, the statistical tale of the two cities, compiled by the A.C. Nielsen ratings people, aren't the last word. They don't necessarily indicate the way things will go from here on in. The real corporate sweat will begin when NBC and ABC executives sift through the national ratings and share-of-audience samples for all this week to see how the Paar-Carson battle is shaping up.

—In New York, Paar and his cohort, Peggy Cass, logged an over-all rating of 9.8, which meant their efforts were seen in an estimated 600,000 homes; Carson got a 6.4 rating, which meant he was seen in an estimated 390,000 homes. —In less-densely populated Los Angeles, Carson logged a 10.3 rating — 350,000 homes — and Paar a 5.2 rating, which put him in an estimated 175,000 homes.

Paar was visibly nervous when he walked on the stage of ABC's 58th Street studio here to pick up where he left off after departing NBC's "Tonight" show in 1962.

"Well, you're very kind," he told the audience as it applauded his opening gags enthusiastically. "I'm so scared. But I'll get over that quick. But here we all are on the great ship Titanic."

He noted that "there's a lot of talk in the industry about competition with NBC, which is pretty foolish. You'd think that in a country of 210 million people, surely there's room for two of us — me and Ed McMahon."

For younger viewers who may know him only vaguely, he explained: "I'm the guy who used to entertain your fathers and mothers and keep them up at night — obviously, not too well, or you wouldn't be here."

But he wasn't the Paar of old. His timing was off and his fans undoubtedly bled for the guy as his opening monologue fell down and died. Carson fans tuning in out of curiosity may have cheered. It wasn't an auspicious start. But it takes time to get used to new surroundings and the rhythm of a new regular show. It'll get better. It has to.

Outdoor Drama Gets State Grant For 1973 Production

A state grant, in the amount of $125,000, was granted Tuesday afternoon to the Scioto Society Inc. hours prior to the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The grant, and the endorsement of Governor John J. Gilligan, were the high points of the evening. Executive vice president of the Society, Rusty Mundell, reported on his meeting with the government officials including Gilligan, Representative Myrl Shoemaker and Donald Striebig, executive director of the Ohio Arts Council.

A state commitment for $125,000 to help finance the production of Tecumseh means the Society has achieved the goal it set over two years ago. According to Mundell, everything is set and, with the state grant, paid for prior to the June 30, 1973 opening of "Tecumseh!"

The Society was advised that the grant would be processed later this month to have funds available July 1, of this year. However, a letter from the state will be sent to the organization allowing them to draw funds in advance to meet production costs.

"What started out as a $200,000 amphitheatre is now a $157,000 operation," Mundell said. Initial plans for the project have blossomed into quite a program.

Board president Robert C. Evans advised the trustees just what growth the program has experienced and announced reorganization of the committee structure.

From a fund-raising and building corporation, the Scioto Society was changed into a producing corporation as new committees were announced.

A Parks Committee is being organized, its main function being the creation of a picnic area on the eastern slope of Sugarloaf Mountain. Chillicothe Kiwanis has already pledged a shelter house for the site. The combined Lions Clubs of the Scioto Valley have initiated a project to set up a "braille trail" for the blind in an area of the wooded mountain.

Mrs. David Yates is chairwoman of the Costume Committee. This group will be working with Pamela Schuelke from the University of Virginia who has already been hired as costume designer. The committee is in charge of providing more than 100 costumes for the cast of 70 men and 20 women plus other members of the technical staff who will take part in the large battle scene.

Other committees include: Membership — headed by Mrs. John Redd. The Society will be selling memberships for $10 a couple and $5 single which includes season tickets for 1973.

Housing — Rosemary Yager, chairwoman. This committee is in charge of locating housing for over 100 production company members from June 1 through Sept. 2 in the Circleville, Chillicothe and Waverly areas.

Munitions — James Bruney, chairman. Established to handle the high explosives and ammunition used in the drama. William Cooper has been employed as pyrotechnician in charge of guns and artillery.

Grounds — to handle landscaping

DREAM MADE REALITY—Faced with financial problems at the outset of their project over two years ago, the residents of the Scioto Valley who formed the Scioto Society, Inc. have had good luck in support of governments and area citizens for their outdoor theatre and historic drama. The final touch was added Wednesday, following a meeting with Gov. Gilligan and other state officials, in the form of a $125,000 grant through the Ohio Arts Council to assure the drama's June 30 opening this year.

and plantings in preparation for opening.

Circulation — Headed by Richard Ward, this committee is charged with circulating brochures and advertising materials within a 200-mile area of the Scioto Valley.

The amphitheatre is now over 70 per cent complete and ahead of the revised construction schedule. D. E. Hud-leston, Inc., who took over the work in mid-November from the first general contractor, has completed the exterior construction of all buildings except those situated in the arcade of the rain shelter of the amphitheatre.

The trustees will meet Feb. 6 in Chillicothe for the annual meeting and election of officers for 1973.

Local Patrolmen Are Invited To Blue Max Award Banquet

Three officers of the local Ohio State Highway Patrol post will be honored guests Thursday at the first annual Blue Max Awards dinner.

The Patrol last year launched a new crackdown on the auto larceny problem by establishing the "Blue Max" program. The massive campaign to recover stolen autos and apprehend the thieves was activated early in 1972 in an attempt to halt the problem of auto larceny which is costing Ohioans over 90 million dollars per year in stolen property and increased insurance rates.

Officers from here will be attending the dinner at the Neil House in Columbus with their wives. They, Ptl. Lowell P. Hardesty, Ptl. Charles L. Cotton, and Ptl. D. R. Cline, will be honored for each earning three "lightning bolts," the symbol of a successful apprehension and recovery.

Since this program was put into effect, 1,584 stolen vehicles were $2,984,985 have been recovered. The Circleville Patrol Post alone made 32 recoveries of stolen vehicles in which the thief was apprehended.

Each time a patrolman recovers a stolen auto and makes an arrest, a red lightning bolt is attached to his patrol car. After earning five lightning bolts, the officer is awarded an "Ace" certificate and a special license plate for his car.

At the awards dinner, the officer from all Ohio Patrol units earning the most lightning bolts will receive the special "Blue Max" award, consisting of a medal, certificate and a ribbon to be attached to his uniform.

Cast Complete For 'Jack'

Mrs. Allan Berger, director of Roundtown Players next production, "Jack and the Giant," by Ruth Newton, has announced the results of recent tryouts.

The cast will be: Jack, Jay Dorff; Mother, Marcie Robertson; Happy, Robin McCabe; Sad, Jim Leckrone; Drusilla, a stage struck cow, B. J. Sowers and Becky Sowers; Old Man, Phil Funk; Giant, Violet Smith and Bill Robertson; Towncrier, Stephany Weikert; The Hen, Julia Schneider; Townspeople, Jenny Berger, Cindy Archer, Karen Lundberg, Julie McCain, Dan McCain, Tom Whaley, Mike Fath, Dick Husky, Dan Stout, Teddy Moats.

Mrs. Ed Grigg is the assistant director. "Jack and the Giant" will be presented Feb. 10-11 in the Memorial Hall Theater.

Scali Assumes U.N. Post With Panama Talks Slated

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Teddy Roosevelt's Big Stick policy may be waiting to haunt John A. Scali when the veteran journalist becomes the chief U.S. delegate to the United Nations.

If Panama gets its way, Scali's diplomatic baptism will be a week of Security Council meetings in Panama to air the United States' old imperialist sins in Latin America.

It could compare to the U.N. welcome given George Bush, Scali's predecessor, who is becoming Republican national chairman. Bush got furrows in his brow when he tried — and failed — to keep Nationalist China in the United Nations in October 1971.

During his turn-of-the-century presidency, Roosevelt helped what is now Panama to break away from Colombia and become independent. Some well-placed U.S. Marines kept Colombian troops from getting to Panama City when the revolt broke out. As a result, the United States was able to buy the land for the Panama Canal cheaply.

Ambassador Aquilino Boyd of Panama made a formal request on Tuesday that the 15-nation Security Council meet in Panama's legislative palace March 15-21. The council will decide next week whether to make the trip, but Boyd appears assured of more than the nine votes he needs.

The proposed theme for the meeting is international peace and security in Latin America, but it is understood that means the stalled negotiations for a new canal treaty between the United States and Panama.

"Going to Panama without discussing the canal would be like going to church and not praying," said Boyd.

U.S. sources predict that while the meetings take place there will be demonstrations by Panamanians demanding sovereignty over the canal and tours of the Canal Zone by council members.
